

THE MAIN STREET Communicator Network TATTLE R 30 30th Anniversary 1974 - 2004

Minneapolis native Al Franken has joined forces with Progress Media, the company launching a liberal radio network, and the comedian/author has agreed to host a daily three-hour show. His show will reportedly occupy the noon to 3 p.m. time slot, right up against his soon-to-be arch rival, Rush Limbaugh. However, Franken promises to use a different format than Rush. "He has no one on the show but it's confrontation," Franken told the Associated Press. "His show is just him railing for three hours." The noted author/comedian plans to use interviews, calls from listeners and scripted comedy to fill up his time slot. He'll probably enlist a co-host (rumored to be Minnesota Public Radio host Katherine Lanpher). Progress Media doesn't have a name (although "Central Air" has been proffered) or a launch date, but about 65 percent of the programming has been decided. The company was bought last November by an investment group led by Mark Walsh, a former America Online executive. He told the AP that the new network has reached its first major distribution agreement with WNTD/Chicago, which is in the process of being sold to Multicultural Radio Broadcasting and will carry programming of the new Liberal Talk radio network. According to Chicago sources, Progress Media has an option to buy WNTD, once Multicultural Radio Broadcasting officially closes on its deal. Progress Media Network President Jon Sinton comments, "It's an extremely significant event for Progress Media to have clearance in the third-largest media market in the country. Combined with other markets we are close to finalizing, Progress Media will have tremendous reach right out of the box." In addition to Franken, Robert F. Kennedy Jr., Lizz Winstead (former "Daily Show" host and creator), and Mike Papantonio will host shows on the new network and USC Associate Dean/Annenberg School For Communications Martin Kaplan will host a talk show about the news media. But back to Al, he quips: "My first priority is to get sued by a right-wing jerk in order to generate interest in my new show, 'The O'Franken Factor.' Our hope is to do drug-free talk radio, although I understand it's never been done. Quite simply, my plan is to alter the political landscape, drive this radical right-wing president from office and stand as a beacon for ordinary Americans who work hard and play by the rules. Short of that, I'd just like to get on in Albany." WellÉhe IS good enough, strong enough, andÉdoggone it...people LIKE him!

After taking a few months to sell 8 million copies of her debut album, Blue Note artist Norah Jones, captured another milestone and it took her just one day to do it: Her single "Sunrise" takes honors as the biggest one day download ever at the iTunes music store. Her album, Feels Like Home, is already #6 on Amazon.com - and it doesn't even come out until February 10th. Don't even THINK of not programming this hit!

Rockin' with the best of them, Hoobastank is heavily bulleted all over Active Rock with "Out of Control". Expect a slight change of pace when Alternative receives their newest next week, the powerful title track from Reason. Like "Runnin' Away", this classy entry will be perking up the ears of pop in no time. Island.

94.5 WKTJ/Milwaukee morning show co-host Amy Taylor gave birth to three healthy girls last weekend. Tess, Jillian and Chloe came into the world in time to watch the Packers playoff game on Sunday. Said the triplets (yes, they talk; they grow up fast in 'Sconsin), "At least the doctor caught usÉthat's more than we can say for the ball that $%#@ Favre threw!" Amy is doing fine and has already called into the morning show with the play-by-play of the births. Her cohorts, Reitman and Mueller - who have been known to make their program directors over the years to have contractions - are doing well.

In just a few more weeks, you'll be getting the exciting new remix of Layne Larson's "Wait For Me"...a song being shared by families of soldiers stationed in far away places. Be on the lookout for this outstanding Stockinrock artist!

Who is Keri Noble?

From Tony Lorino, MD at KLTA/Fargo: "We're finishing up our 20th Birthday Celebration at Lite Rock 105 by 'turning off the lite' on Monday morning at 7:20. Well over 40 new stations became Kimberley Locke believers over the past seven days, as "8th World Wonder" became a most-added track against some very stellar competition. Like Clay Aiken, Kimberley is proving you don't have to win American Idol to succeed in retail and on the radio. If you haven't taken a serious listen to this natural hit, catch up with the rest of the crowd (and hey, Hot AC, your turn comes at the end of the month!) Curb

Infinity Broadcasting filed a request with the FCC this past week "respectfully seeking reconsideration of the forfeiture order" in the WKRK/Detroit indecency case. The request is in response to a $27,000 forfeiture ordered by the Commission for a very explicit January 9, 2002 afternoon broadcast by Jeff Deminski and Bill Doyle, where the duo invited listeners to call and discuss various sexual practices and techniques.

Says KCLD's Sam Stevens, "Breanna has some kind of hit BIG for us!" The AC/DC marathon continued the following morning, until just before 10 a.m., when T.N.T (the new morning guys, Turner Watson and Tommy Collins, who hail from WXNR/New Bern, NC) finally introduced themselves. The ongoing drama surrounding Muzzy Broadcasting's (3) Steven's Point, WI stations (WKQH, WSPT-AM/FM) apparently knows no end! Last month, owner Rick Muzzy was able to convince a judge to cancel a court-ordered auction of the stations to pay off a significant outstanding loan and back-taxes. While Muzzy is reportedly still working on getting the required financing, this week the Portage County Sheriff's Dept. went ahead and scheduled an auction for the properties anyway. Stay tuned for more developments, we're sure they'll be coming soon!

According to reports from this week's Inside Radio (1/14), WKQX/Chicago morning madman Mancow aired a tape during his show of a couple having sex over the PA system at Chicago's O'Hare airport. Allegedly, within hours there were cops at the station looking for a copy of the Q101 tape in order to apprehend the offending pair. The following day (1/15) Inside Radio reported that WKQX GM Chuck DuCoty had called their offices to insist the station knew nothing of the report, and that they were unaware of any police looking for any such tape. The publication then went on to apologize for a story that "never happened."
