30th Anniversary 1974 - 2004

Last week, it was announced suburban WCAL/Northfield, St. Olaf College's 82-year-old classical station will be sold for an estimated $10.5 million to Minnesota Public Radio, which owns rival station KSJN (which had been Emmis' WLOL-FM, until Jeff Smulyan sold the then-T40 to the public radio giant in 1992 for about twice the price of WCAL). The $10.5 million will be added to St. Olaf's current $185 million endowment, allowing the college to invest more in academic programs. Minneapolis had been home to two classical frequencies for years, a bit of a rarity in most major markets. KSJN plays the more familiar "pop" classical, while WCAL tended to be more adventurous. Because MPR is making overtures at turning off WCAL's classical signal for another type of programming (said Tom Kigin, MPR executive vice president and general counsel: "It's fair to say that it would be unusual to have two classical music stations in one town"), dissent is being heard on the tundra. "They've been a great boost to the community," said local Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Dominick Argento. "The choice of what they played and the programs they've subsidized have been singularly brilliant. I can't think of anything on [KSJN that's] equal in the quantity." But that's not all. Yesterday, it was revealed (by the Minneapolis Star-Tribune) that one of the country's largest noncommercial religious broadcasters offered to buy WCAL for "a lot more money" than the $10.5 million winning bid made by MPR. Richard Jenkins, president of California's Educational Media Foundation wouldn't disclose the offer, but took St. Olaf to task stating, "It's clear they didn't want to maximize their investment...They wanted MPR to operate the station." Jan McDaniel, vice president for college relations at St. Olaf, rebutted Jenkins' claim stating that MPR's bid is higher when certain "soft dollar" additions were calculated. What were those "soft dollar" considerations? $1 million worth of promotional announcements as part of the deal. Of course, it's not entirely certain what $1 million will buy on a non-commercial radio outlet ("That was Ludwig Van Beethoven...who, if he were alive today, would want to enroll at St. Olaf's College!") Another component of the "soft dollar" addition: MPR President Bill Kling's promise to "hire as many members of WCAL's 20-person staff as possible." Observers of sales of commercial radio properties over the past half dozen years know how THAT promise generally works. One possible reason for St. Olaf to rebuff Educational Media Foundation is the fact that EMF operates the K-LOVE network of stations around the country, a format which includes contemporary Christian music, Bible readings and prayer. St. Olaf may have decided it was easier to put up with complaints about selling to secular MPR, than would selling the frequency to a fundamentalist religious entity. And KTIS/Minneapolis - the non commercial religious FM owned by Northwestern Bible College - is the one of the most powerful Christian signals on the air today. St. Olaf may not have wanted to unwittingly start a battle between Christian colleges (St. Olaf is connected with the Lutheran Church). No matter what, programming on WCAL would not change format until later this fall, allowing MPR to do some damage control...not just for angry WCAL listeners, but to donors of MPR who figure if the public radio behemoth has enough cash to cough up $10.5 million, it certainly doesn't need their $100 pledge!

Spinning "Wrong" has never felt so right for radio, as the second single from Curb recording artist Kimberley Locke continues to ascend the R&R CHR chart this week, going *38-36, with WRVW being the latest calls to join the pack that includes regional spin-leaders; WXSS 35x, WIOG 31x, KKDM 27x and WZEE25x. (Meanwhile, her first single "8th World Wonder" goes Top 10 at AC!)

"Vagabond America" Dept: Minneapolis' liberal talk programming - "Straight Talk Radio" - is moving again. Come October 1, STR will be heard on Infinity's (JR Broadcasting LLC) Business-Sports KSNB/Minneapolis. Air America's Al Franken and Jones' Ed Schultz along with Minneapolis' Wendy Wilde Show is now heard on Starboard's KSMM/Shakopee and Borgen's WMIN/Hudson, WI. Infinity - owners of powerhouse WCCO-AM, mainstream AC WLTE, and 80's WPXT will retain some of KSNB's present sports programming along with the liberal talkers until contracts with the Twins and University of Minnesota sports expires.

European Supergroup Busted makes it's US radio debut this week with the all-too-obvious "What I Go To School For" on Universal. You may not know, but millions of fans worldwide worship at the altar of what some critics call "a relevant Green Day!" Listen to your next hit, then pop it on the air ASAP. You'll be playing your city's newest Back-To-School anthem!

She's BAACK! Former Arista Records Dir. Of Promotion Denise Lutz has checked out of Chicago, and has moved (back) to Minneapolis. But don't expect her to be returning to the record business any time soon; she begins schooling next week in her quest to become a physical therapist, hopeful to specialize in treating children. She was a bit unspecific about reasons for the career switch, mumbling something about a "higher calling." Welcome home, Dee!

According to reports from this week's Kansas City Star, Entercom Sports KCSP/Kansas City midday host (and former Chiefs center) Tim Grunhard has been charged with perjury - a felony - for trying to get out of jury duty by allegedly saying under oath last fall that he was no longer a Johnson County, KS resident. Grunhard, who prosecutors contend does indeed live in the county (in Mission Hills), faces a penalty of anything from probation to 11-34 months in prison if convicted. After spending much of Monday (8/16) in jail before posting the requisite $1,500 bond, his day in court was scheduled for next Wednesday (8/25). Grunhard retired from football after the 2000 season and immediately became a radio host at WHB, later joining the upstart sports outlet KCSP. His on-air partner Holden Kushner is apparently now exiting the station as Doug Franz is moved into Kushner's slot, with overnigher Damon Amendolara taking Franz's old early morning show and Kevin Rogers assuming overnights. (Stay tuned for more developments.)

Seeing as how Ohio is the battleground state that it is this year, Top 40 WNCI/Columbus Morning Zoo morning team Dave Kaelin and Jimmy Jam have each sided with a presidential candidate (Kerry/Bush, respectively) and initiated a bet to determine who can line-up the "biggest name" to call in and speak on behalf of their respective side over the next two weeks. (With the loser required to vote for the other's candidate.) Tuesday (8/17) Ben Affleck called in for a half-hour to represent the Democrats side, meanwhile Jimmy's time is running out! (However, in the past Jimmy has brought both Bush and Clinton to the table, so don't count him out yet!)

TalenTrak Aircheck Clinic Filling Fast. The popular Aircheck Clinic at the September 18th event will be available to the first 60 registrants, and will feature some of the finest programmers in America as "clinicians": Doug "Doc" Podell, Jimmy Steele, Barb Richards and Sue Wilson along with Kim Monroe, PD for WXTM FM/Cleveland, Bernie Kimble, PD for WNWV FM/Cleveland, TK O'Grady, PD for WONE FM/Akron, Allan Fee, PD for WQAL FM/Cleveland, Bill Klapproth, PD for WLUP FM/Chicago, Tim Kelly, Market Manager for Elyria-Lorain Broadcasting/Cleveland, Daniel Anstandig, VP for McVay Media/Cleveland, Dave Popovich, PD for WMJI/Cleveland, and more to be announced. Tuition? Just $49 until September 1st. Group rates are available. Visit www.theconclave.com for details.

This morning (8/20) Clear Channel's Top 40 WKQI/Detroit wake-up man Mojo in the Morning hosted the final event of the "White Trash Olympics" - the Belly Flop contest, whereby contestants get one opportunity to make a splash, impress the judges and win Kid Rock concert tickets. After the ceremonial "lighting of the grill" earlier this week, the WTO commenced with Midwest-flavored competitions such as "Catch A Chicken," "Pig Feet Bobbing," "Hubcap Hurling," "Armpit Serenade," and "Seed Spitting." (What? No cow-tipping?)

Clear Channel has sold its Aberdeen, SD cluster (including; Sports KSDN, Talker KCAA, AC KBFO, Classic Rocker KSDN and Oldies KQAA) to Aberdeen Radio Ranch (ARR), owned by Todd & Rob Ingstad, the sons of longtime radio operator Bob Ingstad. As a result of ARR already owning Country simulcast KGIM/KQKD and Hot AC KNBZ, shortly after the announced sale, ARR spun off Oldies KQAA to Educational Media Foundation and Talker KCAA and Country KQKD to Family Stations. The sales, which could be finalized as early as next week, keep the Ingstads safely within FCC ownership limits in the market.

TalenTrak to conclude with FUN! At the conclusion Saturday September 18th, TalenTrak presents "Great War Stories of Radio", an intimate glance at the trials and tribulations of some of the industry's most successful air talents, presented in story form! Then, the faculty and students adjourn for the ever-popular Happy Hour, followed by a TalenTrak first: a visit to the legendary Jacobs Field to watch the Cleveland Indians take on the Texas Rangers! (A limited number of game tickets will be made available to all registrants). Plan to work hard, then play hard at TalenTrak 2004! Visit www.theconclave.com for details.

Kudos to the staff at KMCH/Manchester, IA which has begun a drive to collect music CD's and DVD movies from listeners to send to the troops overseas. Within the first week one large box has already been filled, with a second box getting a good start. This Thursday (8/26) the music, movies and other goodies will be packed and shipped to US soldiers in Iraq.
