Tonight at TalenTrak! Attendees who check in tonight for tomorrow's TalenTrak — the Conclaves exclusive air talent seminar in Cleveland — will have an opportunity to see history! Moonlight Groove Highway, a loyal Conclave supporter, will supply a limited number of entrance passes to registrants and faculty to visit the world-renowned Rock and Roll Hall of Fame & Museum tonight, good for a tour the museum between 6 PM and 9 PM. Later, those same registrants will have a chance to tour the Moonlight Groove studios, right in the Rock Hall. Those who have pre-registered will have their names waiting at will-call! But wait there's more! Later that evening, all registrants and faculty are invited to join the Conclave crew and staff at the Hi-Fi Club on Cleveland's near west side to see a performance by Bobaflex, a West Virginia band who stole the show during a performance at a Conclave learning Conference showcase in Minneapolis a couple of months ago. If you've pre-registered, your name will be at the door.

Tuition for TalenTrak/Cleveland September 18th at the Holiday Inn Select Lakeshore is just $59 for the whole day. The tuition includes (take a deep breath, now): all course materials, morning coffee/tea, Saturday lunch, the Saturday evening cocktail party, and Cleveland Indian/KC Royals tickets on Saturday night. All that for $59! Need directions? Call the host hotel, The Holiday Inn Select at 216-241-5100. Parking at or near the Holiday Inn (there is a public lot nearby) is available for $5/day or less!

Joss Stone and the obvious new single You Had Me is already ahead of the S-Curve with rotations on VH1 and MTV. Just added this week at KMXV/Kansas City with early spins already mounting at WIOG and KZMG. Be sure to audition this future hit today! (Still need a copy? Contact cmozena@main-st.net and we'll rush you one today!)

XM has applications to add (49) repeaters to its currently operating transmitters, and Sirius applied to change the technical parameters of (16) of its repeaters. In other satellite radio news, XM has also announced that it will stream its music channels and some of its other content on the Internet, with a catch - it'll cost listeners $7.99 a month to tune in. Meanwhile, the new XM Radio Online service will also be offered as a free trial in a promotion to purchasers of new Dell computers.

Tim McGraw's new single Live Like You Were Dying was most added at AC this week, including regional adds from KUDL, WFMK, KAYL and many more! This is the real deal folks, don't delay giving your AC audience another hit from Curb.

Kudos to Entercom Alternative KRBZ/Kansas City OM Greg Bergen and staff on their Rock the Vote Free Concert this past Friday (9/10) where, in addition to featuring live music from various national bands and 10 different political candidates who spoke, they drew an estimated 7,000 people of which, the station claims 5,000 registered as new voters for the upcoming elections!

Changes. Tony Lorino has been tapped as APD for KIOA/Des Moines...WKSX/Dayton APD/midday host Brian Kelly has resigned after 11 years with the station to take time off and then pursue a programming position in Christian AC...WBZU/Madison PD Jeff Andrews has exited the station...Twin Cities radio alumni and current Clear Channel/Miami Imager and host Jake Redman picks up nights (via voice-tracking) at KHMV/Houston, TX. Redman had been a staffer at KDWB, Cities 97 and at KBEM...Mark Anthony is leaving KSAX TV in Alexandria, MN and his morning-show duties at KOOL 94.3 to take a new job at KDSM/Des Moines and at KGAN/Cedar Rapids...Wisconsin station owner Dave Magnum has won the Republican nomination to challenge incumbent Tammy Baldwin in the state's 2nd Congressional District. With Ross win, he'll be off KIRO at least until the election.

Is it any wonder that Kimberley Locke's single Eighth World Wonder is bulletted at #8 this week on the AC chart? Not really with regional spin leaders including; WFMK 29x, KEFM 25x, WLHT 23x, WLTQ 22x, KSRTC 21x! Curb KZZQ/Des Moines was knocked off the air this week by a lighting strike. According to PD Dave St. John, they were off the air from 11am Wednesday to 4:30pm yesterday (9/16) after the bolt of lightning toasted the main controller board in their transmitter. Unwilling to wait for Fed-Ex, Dave and his weekend jock Andy then drove to Harris Broadcast in Quincy, IL (4 1/2 hours away) to pick one up, and they are now comfortably back on-air.

According to a ruling by a Hamilton County Common Pleas court last Thursday (9/9), Clear Channel's WSAI/Cincinnati will have to defend itself (in a jury trial) against charges that it is liable for financial losses suffered by victims of a financial scam advertised on the station. Judge Norbert Nadel ruled that WSAI must stand trial in a civil lawsuit filed by about (20) individual victims of George Fiorini, who pleaded guilty in August to fraud and income tax evasion in connection with a failed $15 million risk free 10%-return promissory note scheme that ran from 1995 to 2001 and was promoted with spots on WSAI featuring a personal endorsement by late local TV and radio legend Bob Braun. The station and sister WLW-A promptly pulled the spots in May of 2000 after Fiorini was accused by the state of selling unregistered securities. (Stay tuned for developments!)

The TATTLER wishes a speedy recovery to all our saturated friends in the gulf region that were affected by Hurricane Ivan this past week.

The instantly recognizable What I Go to School For by Busted is now beginning to make waves on both sides of the Atlantic with help from early T40 believers like KBEA, KCHZ, KZMG, WIOG 10x, WZEE 12x and WHTS A-16x! Audition today!
