Legendary programmer and Minneapolis native Dan Kieley died last Sunday from a sudden cardiac arrest. He was at his home in Dallas with his son Joe, watching his favorite non-radio pastime, golf. The 51 year-old Kieley was a partner in Snafu Consulting with Garry Leigh and his son, Joe Kieley. Dan was Brown Institute grad, and began his broadcasting career in South Dakota. He came to national prominence programming stations like KKRC/Sioux Falls and KDWZ/Des Moines. His promotional prowess eventually landed him the Marketing Director's job for the Dave Shakes edition of B96/Chicago. He shifted back into programming at then rhythmic WLUM/Milwaukee. After exiting Milwaukee, he returned to Rapid City for 20 minutes before taking over KQKQ/Omaha programming. Within a couple of years, he landed what he always considered his "dream job", PD of hometown KDWB/Minneapolis. Then, LA beckoned and he moved westward to program KIIS where his legacy was cemented as he doubled the KIIS audience (12+) from 2.8 to 5.6 during his tenure. He exited KIIS – and radio – for a few months, then returned to what would ultimately be his last PD gig at CBS' KRBV/Dallas. While programming in the Midwest, Dan also served on the Conclave's early Advisory Board...a position he had to be given, after he "snuck" into the Advisors group photo during the 1984 Conclave Learning Conference! The Conclave is where many first met Dan, and it held a special place in his heart. Last year, while taking a break from his airchecking duties at the July Learning Conference, he admitted to his son Joe, "The Conclave may be the most important thing I've experienced in radio. It's a special place and I hope you keep coming here, just like I have over the years." Last Monday, with Joe's help and blessing, the Conclave created The Dan Kieley Memorial Scholarship Fund. For anyone wishing to memorialize Dan, contributions to the new Fund can be sent via check to The Conclave, 4517 Minnetonka

Bldv. #104, Minneapolis, MN 55416. Please note on the check that it's for the Dan Kieley Memorial Scholarship Fund. The money will help a deserving student further their career in broadcasting. Said Joe, "Dad was all about teaching and helping – and this Conclave scholarship is exactly what he would have wanted." Personal note: No one was as intuitively brilliant at programming than Dan. He knew his broadcast history, and applied those lessons daily. He took chances. On music. On air talent. On promotions. On himself. He took those chances and won, most of the time. His musical "discoveries" are still making hits today and radio professionals fortunate enough to be mentored by Dan are now at the helm of key stations across America. That's why, when a listener turns their radio on and tunes to any frequency...they will ALWAYS hear a bit of Dan Kieley. Thank you for coming our way, Kiels. You are already missed, big time.

It's Entercom vs. Spitzer now with the former coming out swinging against the payola lawsuit being brought against them by the New York Attorney General. An article by the Wall Street Journal states that the company's "motion asserts that the attorney general acted improperly in basing his suit on New York's consumer-protection laws." This makes Entercom the first company to resist Spitzer. Attorneys for the radio corporation insist that in order to properly file a suit under the consumer-protection laws, Spitzer must prove that "consumers were harmed as a result of material deception." Entercom is arguing that because radio is free to consumers, it is impossible to harm them. Spitzer's people responded saying, "We've made our arguments about how consumers are affected by this conduct. We'll let the court decide this case on its merits." The Journal says Spitzer is hoping for a $20 million settlement from Entercom. The radio company had no comment.

A caller known as Dennis the Dry Cleaner dialed in to ABC Talk WLS/Chicago and told host Roe Conn that he had discussed details of the corruption case being waged against former Illinois Governor George Ryan with a female jury member. Law dictates that jurors are prohibited from this type of disclosure, and as a result the integrity of the trial has been called in to question. The tape of this call was subpoenaed for review. No details have been released, but it is known that the judge in the case, Rebecca Pallmeyer, met with Ryan's attorneys earlier this week. If this juror is released, it will be the third to go in this particular trial.
