A settlement resolution has been reported from USA Today involving the "Big Four" broadcasting companies. Payments will be made to the FCC upwards of $10 million after an extensive investigation by the FCC into payola accusations, according to FCC officials. Democrats Jonathan Adelstein and Michael Copps have been pushing for strict concessions, contrasting sharply with the Republican backing of lighter terms. On Wednesday, Sen. Russ Feingold (D-WI) appealed to the Senate Commerce Committee to put the pressure on FCC commissioners to take a hard line on payola. The commissioners will appear today at the FCC oversight hearing. Within the current terms proposed, broadcasters would commit to $7 million of their airtime to independent music. Radio would shell out $3 million to the NAB for training programs for stations to discourage payola.

In an ongoing story, Air America has a letter of intent to be sold to Stephen L. Green's SLG Radio LLC for a sum not disclosed. Green, a real estate mogul, will close the deal mid-February if it's approved in bankruptcy court. He's the brother of New York liberal politico Mark Green. Additionally, Al Franken is leaving the network after Valentine's Day, and Thom Hartmann will take his place.

Al Franken, 2005 Conclave keynoter, has started the ball rolling on his senate campaign against Sen. Norm Coleman for the 2008 election. Franken has begun making calls to his pundit friends and is declaring his candidacy. Speaking on the condition of anonymity, two members of the Minnesota delegation and one member of the Legislature have confirmed the calls, but did not want their identities revealed so as to disrupt Franken's announcement. Franken grew up in St. Louis Park, and achieved his success through writing for Saturday Night Live and becoming a best-selling author. In the past year, his radio show has moved to Minneapolis and he's become very active in Minnesota politics.

ABC News President David Westin has come under attack from three Arab-American groups this week. The organizations have pleaded with Westin not to let "Good Morning America" continue its plans to use 2006 keynoter Glenn Beck as a regular commentator. The demands come from the Arab-American Institute, the Muslim Public Affairs Council, and the American-Arab Anti-Discrimination League, all of which cite remarks Beck made to Rep. Keith Ellison (D-MN), who is a Muslim, including, "prove to me that you are not working with our enemies." Beck defended himself, calling the statement "poorly worded," ABC has called upon parties from the groups to come on the air to discuss the issue. From the AP, Beck states: "My message is clear: Islam is a peaceful religion for over 90% of the world's Muslims. I have urged viewers repeatedly to understand this, while asking all of the proud, peaceful Muslims here in AMERICA to take a more visible role in our fight against those who make a mockery of the Quran. I also make airtime available, at any time, to any Muslim organization to help reinforce this realistic, peaceful view of Islam."

Former Market Manager Nancy Odney is being sued by Triad's Go Radio Broadcasting subsidiary for "violations of state law and confidentiality agreements." Odney exited the Triad cluster in January, joining Jim Ingstad's Radio Fargo-Moorhead cluster as COO. According to The Fargo Forum, Go filed the suit on Friday, hoping for an estoppel of trade secret sharing by Odney. Odney's attorney, Sarah Herman, has assured the press that the allegations have "no merit...either factually or legally." Herman also added that Ingstad has no desire to get into legal entanglements with Triad, but apparently "they want to start one."

Scott Eller Corelyou was arrested in his home in Conifer, Colorado, on Wednesday. The Denver radio personality was caught having an internet chat with an undercover agent, and is already in hot water with Fort Collins on charges of internet luring. Previously, he was accused of Internet exploitation of a child, an accusation that dates back to August 2006, when police say he orchestrated sexually explicit conversations with someone he believed to be an underage child. This incident most likely occurred before the one that led to his arrest by the Fort Collins police. Corteyou's show "Business for Breakfast" has been on the air for 10 years, where he's been the business editor for KOA and KHOW in Denver.

The verdict is in for agent Todd Musburger after a Chicago jury awarded him $68,750 against his former client Garry Meier, according to the Chicago Tribune. The suit involved fees owed to Musburger for negotiating a deal for Meier with ABC Talk WLS-AM/Chicago in 2003, which Meier rejected. A former co-host with Roe Conn, Meier fired Musburger and then did not come to terms with his station. Musburger sued him for $92,750, during a trial in which Conn testified that radio hosts' contracts were not linked by signed agreement, which opposed Meier's claims otherwise.

Changes. Shotgun Steve Kelly leaves FFD Holdings/Joplin, MO Top 40 KMOQ as PD/afternoon and Country KBTN middayer...PD for Entercom Sports WSSP-AM/Milwaukee Ryan Maguire has given his afternoon jocks Gary Ellerson and Cliff Saunders the "okay" as permanent hosts...Welcome to Joey Krol as Production Director/On-air personality at Christian AC WIBI/Springfield-St. Louis...Quad City legends Dwyer & Michaels start Monday on KRNA.

Congratulations to Schurz Communications Chairman/CEO Franklin Schurz, Jr., the recipient of the 2007 American Women in Radio & Television Achievement Award. Schurz's company owns radio & TV clusters in Indiana, Missouri, Virginia, South Dakota, Kansas, and Georgia, along with owning several cable companies and newspapers. The award is given out every year to a deserving AWRT member who has supported the role of AWRT in the industry.

"The Dick Dale Show" will be launched February 12 in the mornings at Entercom's Alternative KRBZ (96.5 The Buzz)/Kansas City! The station has stuck to music-intensive mornings in the past, called "Mylist," and airing listeners' top 10 call-ins, ever since Afentra's Big Fat Morning Show hopped over to sis Alternative KRDD(107.7 The End)/Seattle to join "The Church of Lazlo" in the afternoons in November. Previously, Dale did afternoons at Lotus's Active Rock KOMP/Las Vegas. He reunited with former co-host Jessica Chase, who's been working the Charleston, SC circuit with mornings, stand-up, and columnist work. Dale is an 11-year vet of radio and got his big shot from current afternoon host Lazlo, while they were both in Florida.

There were several change-ups in Journal Broadcast's management system this week, with the goal of directing its energies to interactive and new-media opportunities. Carl Gardner, Exec. VP/Television & Radio Operations & Interactive Media, has been working with the web departments at Journal, shooting off several dozen sites and new revenue initiatives over the past years. He now has the job of leading those resources across all the Journal markets. Also, Gardner marches on as he oversees Milwaukee, Green Bay, and Lansing broadcast markets. Steve Wexler was promoted to Exec. BP/Television & Radio Ops, and also takes on the Knoxville market. Jim Thomas comes on as VP/Marketing, Programming & New Media Development, and has the task of creating new programming, new channels, and multi-media strategies to up ratings and profits.

Radio One Urban AC WDMK (105.9 KISS)/Detroit afternoon jock John Mason hit the airwaves on a morning shift on Tuesday, 1/30, in spite of a non-compete clause. He was heard on Smooth Jazz WGPR, and it appears as if he began his stint 48 hours before his clause was technically expired. WGPR PD Carol James claims "it was a teaser," and he didn't officially start until 2/1. His contract ended in July with Radio One, and he immediately began the morning drive at WGPR until Radio One sued him over the six-month non-compete. Mason's lawyer defends him, however, saying the clause ended January 29.

Morning man for Emmis Classic Rock WLUP/Chicago Jonathon Brandmeier kicked off a Super Bowl promo this week, directing listeners to come down to the United Center parking lot and make the attempt at consecutive field goals, with the prize being a pair of tickets to the Bowl. Local media coverage can be found on Fox News, NBC 5, and WGN 9 Chicago.

Doug & Mary, the morning show team for Woodward Communications Top 40 WKSZ topped off the station's Super Bowl promo this week by shelling out a big-screen, recliners, and several X-Boxes! Pepsi pitched in with sodas, one with the lucky red sticker on the bottom. 40 qualifiers got a go at a bottle (twice) and the winning bottle still had not been located! Finally, when there were only five bottles left, the lucky one was found and the winner took all!

The rivalry is on between two of Emmis' Chicago and Indianapolis stations, and we're not just talking hometown loyalty: If the Bears take the ring, the entire Chicago cluster gets Monday off, and vice versa! There are several other broadcasting companies putting up similar workplace benefits tied to the Bowl, and some will get Monday off regardless of Sunday's outcome. In the same vein, Emmis' Alternative WKQX/Chicago afternoon jock Fook challenges sis Top 40/Mainstream WNOU/Indianapolis afternoon dude Nigel to a bout of "Super Bowling." Today the Chicago team, made up of the jock and his listeners, has a grudge match bowling game against the Indianapolis faction. They'll meet up at the half-way mark between Chi-town and Indianapolis, The Strike Zone in Rensselaer, Indiana. The winner gets some yummy treats from the opposing team's hometown; South Bend Chocolates for the Windy City team, and deep-dish pizza for the Colt-lovers.

A mass wedding is in the works for Bonneville Country WIL/St. Louis, although the Reverend Moon won't be there to officiate. On Valentine's Day, the famous Gateway Arch will be home to the nuptials, spearheaded by morning maestro Cornbread. 92 lovebirds have been handpicked by WIL as "official" wedding couples, and they get the whole package free: ceremony, reception, flowers, rings, photos, and more prize packages.

Our men and women in uniform are getting a great Valentine's Day gift from Lincoln Financial Media Country KYGO/Denver this year: Morning team Kelly and Mudflap are corralling listeners to hit Invesco Field on V-Day to form a massive heart that will shown to the troops via email. Participants will line up in a heart-shaped American flag, spanning from 25 yard line to 25 yard line, and sideline to sideline. Darryl Worley, 903 Music recording artist, will be performing at the event, as well as several other Denver luminaries.

Tom Hamilton and Mike Hegan have had their contracts extended by the Cleveland Indians this week! Hamilton, a Conclave 2006 faculty member, joined Cleveland in 1990, and received a 5-year extension through 2011. Hegan, in his 19th season with the Indians, got a three-year deal. Games can be heard on Clear Channel Talk WTAM-AM/Cleveland.
