Don Imus is in the unemployment line, as CBS fired him yesterday. Said CBS President/CEO Leslie Moonves in announcing the decision: "I want to thank all those who came to see us to express their views. We are now presented with a significant opportunity to expand on our record on issues of diversity, race and gender. We intend to seize that opportunity as we move forward together. Imus In The Morning was carried on 61 stations across the U.S. and distributed over the Westwood One Radio Network. The cancellation of the program comes after statements IMUS made about the young women who comprised the Rutgers University Women's Basketball team, which reached the finals of the NCAA Women's Basketball Championship this spring. Reputedly, Imus generated as much as $22 million annually for WFAN (his flagship station in New York) — almost half of the station's revenue last year. Ironically, Imus' final show generated a boatload of cash—some $1.3 million from supportive listeners during his annual radiothon for his Imus Ranch and to fight AIDS. Comment: Virtually every kind of media outlet, from the Internet to print to television, has covered this as a day-to-day lead story this week. Sides are being chosen as free speech vs. community standards – manifest in every fashion, from on-air dialogue to music - is debated. That's healthy. But that's not the best part. The best part is this: radio has become the most talked-about medium in the nation. It's being talked about at the dinner table. In social situations. At the neighborhood watering hole. We suspect people who hadn't sampled a morning show in years, turned on the radio...just to hear what's going on. Let's hope radio can capitalize on this new awareness in a positive way. So far, that's happening. And that's very, very good. Oh...in case you're wondering how the voice of radio – the NAB – is responding, here's the news they're making today (as reported by All-Access): "The NAB sent two separate documents to Members of Congress and their staffs this week, highlighting opposition to the proposed merger of XM and Sirius Satellite Radio." No additional comment is necessary. - TK

The nationally syndicated Lex & Terry Morning Radio Network, syndicated by Envision Radio Networks, has offered to lend a hand to those affiliates left without a morning show after Don Imus' dismissal by offering stations who lost Imus – or who simply want a morning show

– two weeks of L&T. Host Lex Staley said, "As a fellow broadcaster, it's an unfortunate situation and we hope that we can be of service to help his former affiliates."

On Friday, the FCC released its Consent Decrees on 'payola' violations. CBS Radio, Citadel Broadcasting, Clear Channel Communications, and Entercom Communications agreed to pay out a combined sum of $12.5 million in order to close inquiries into each of the companies' possible violations. Besides the money the four broadcasters will pay, there are other provisions and compliance measures involved, to wit: Prohibition on Company stations and employees exchanging airplay for cash or other items of value except under specified conditions; limits on gifts, concert tickets, and other valuable items from record labels to company stations or employees; Appointment of Compliance Officers and market-level Compliance Contacts responsible for monitoring and reporting company performance under the Consent Decrees; and regular training of programming personnel on payola restrictions. The chairman of the FCC, Kevin Martin stated: "The Commission has longstanding rules prohibiting payola. These rules serve the important purpose of ensuring that the listening public knows when someone is seeking to influence them or the types of music that they hear on the radio. As I have said before, the Commission will not tolerate non-compliance with its rules."

Ed Schultz, the Fargo-based air personality formerly of Air America, is now at odds with the progressive station. He told the LA Times this week that his dispute with LA affiliate Clear Channel Talk KTLK-AM resulted from a payoff from Air America. Schultz was recently demoted from a live show to a tape-delayed evening show. Said Schultz, "It's not a radio decision. It has nothing to do with ratings or sales. To say I'm upset about it is an understatement. Air America is screwing things up." Schultz's show is syndicated by Jones Radio Networks. KTLK GM John Quinlan disputes the claims, saying that Schultz had "the lowest-rated show on the radio station," and that the station simply had a preference for Air America's Thom Hartmann for that time period.

Fred Thompson, actor, former Senator, ABC News Radio senior analyst, and Paul Harvey fill-in, announced this week that he's had indolent lymphoma, but he's had no symptoms and the cancer is now in remission. Thompson said that even though he was diagnosed 2 years ago, "I wouldn't be doing this if I wasn't satisfied in my own mind as to the nature of it and the fact that not only will I have an average life span, but in the meantime, I will not be affected in any way by it. Now of course nobody knows the future, but that has been in the history for almost three years now in terms of no symptoms and no sickness...I have had no illness from it, or even any symptoms. My life expectancy should not be affected. I am in remission, and it is very treatable with drugs if treatment is needed in the future-and with no debilitating side effects." Thompson is mulling over a bid for the Republican nomination for President in 2008. On the QT and very hush-hush, but sources say Thompson may be making a stop over in Minneapolis in late June at a gathering of radio professionals...all speculation, of course!

The 2007 Learning Conference – Conclave 007: Radio Under Construction – attacks morning shows all over America on Saturday morning June 30th, at the Marriott City Center Hotel/Minneapolis! The Good Morning Show, Making it Great: What are the Basics of a good morning show? How do you know when you are connecting with your listeners? How do you know what your boundaries are? This session will show how to cover your ASS-set (your job) and ways to make a two-person morning show sound bigger without a large budget. The session will be moderated by Sheri Lynch from highly successful syndicated morning show “Bob and Sheri.” Sheri will be joined by a host of experienced faculty and hot new comers like: Donna Valentine & Muss (KEEY-FM/Minneapolis) - Together for over 7 years, this team won the CMA for Major Market Station of the Year in 2005. Skip Murphy (KKDA-FM/Dallas) - Skip moved to Dallas after mornings on WPEG in Charlotte and led the station to #1 in the market. He's the recipient of the 2002 Best of Dallas-Best Radio Morning Show-Critics Pick, and the 2000 Billboard Radio Awards Local Air Personality of the Year Award.

Free Beer & Hot Wings (WGRD-FM/Grand Rapids): This hot, new syndicated show features Gregg “Free Beer” Daniels and Chris “Hot Wings” Michaels who've been together since they were college roommates in the early '90's. They're generating a lot of buzz and picking up new affiliates in Nashville and North Carolina. Additionally, attendees will get a chance to catch up with nuts behind “Project 100 Radio”: 2 guys, one car, 100 days. Join Mitchell Baldwin and Will Harvey as they relate the challenges, rewards and reasons why they decided to try to visit 100 morning shows in 100 days. For the complete 2007 Conclave Learning Conference schedule, please visit <http://www.theconclave.com/conclaveagenda.asp>

The PD Gender Analysis Summary, released this week by Mentoring and Inspiring Women in Radio, shows that women have made no progress in the PD job category, and the number of women has indeed been slipping across the country. Said Joan E. Gerberding, the new President of Localfocus in New York City, “It stands to reason that if we as an industry more accurately reflect the communities to which we are licensed, we are likely to become more relevant and to thrive. The PD pool is just not reflective of the marketplace.”

Changes. Former KC programmer Todd Violette is moving on to PD duties at Hot AC KBBY/Oxnard/Ventura, CA, a sister to his current digs at Cumulus Modern AC KRUZ/Santa Barbara, CA...Hometown Classic Rock WZZZ/Portsmouth, OH is the newest affiliate for Envision Radio Network's American Biker Minute...Waitt Radio Networks Modern Rock evening jock/“Out Of The Box” specialty show host Amber Kuhl moves up to MD of the satellite format, based in Omaha...Jeff Monoso of Clear Channel talk KTLK-FM/Minneapolis-St. Paul is upped to News Director from his previous reporting duties. He joined up last year from Milwaukee, and is taking the place left earlier this year by Andrew Colton...LSM of CBS Radio Adult Hits KZJK/Minneapolis Patrick Stelzner is promoted to GSM...JR Greeley, VP/Market Manager of Regent Broadcasting/Peoria, and Bob Swinehart, Dir./Sales, made the announcement this week that they've hired Mark Ebner as the new Interactive Sales manager for Regent/Peoria...JoJo Collins, the last member of the original staff at Clear Channel Top 40 KZCH/Wichita, is leaving and being replaced by new PD/afternoon Sammy Suarez.

Jacobs Media has just finished a survey that reveals that social networking sites such as MySpace and Facebook are the main sources of personal encounters, with 27% of users saying they have met someone after first communicating with them online. The meetings are most common among the 18-34 set, with over a third of them getting together with someone they first chatted with over these sites. Jacobs Media President Fred Jacobs said, “This trend is a clear indication that for many, social networking sites go well beyond computer encounters, and can be the start of personal relationships. This is also an indication of how the Internet is evolving beyond information to socialization.” The survey included over 25,000 Rock radio listeners from all over the U.S., and Jacobs noted, “We were surprised, when you think about MySpace and similar sites, you think teens or twentysomethings. The reality is that adults are clearly using these internet meeting places, too.”

“Price is Right” legend Bob Barker is the new voice for Emmis Alternative WKQX/Chicago! Said Dir./Marketing & Promotion Tommy King: “The goal for designing the creative for this campaign is summed up in words like bold, unique, buzzworthy, topical, clever, humorous, and original. We feel that the artwork tackles each and every word! Most adults from 25-35 spent their summer mornings (or sick days from school) tuning into the popular “Price is Right.” If you weren't one of the masses that tune in, you can't deny that Bob Barker is one of the most legendary celebrity faces still alive today.” And the Barker connection with “The Morning Fix”? King explains: Bob's lifelong public service mission is to control the pet population and at the end of every “Price is Right” for 50 years he recited the famous, “This is Bob Barker reminding you to help control the pet population by having your pet spayed or neutered.’ Slang for spayed or neutered is ‘fixed.’...’This is Bob Barker reminding you to GET FIXED!’ (Editor's note: Ah...I get it!)

Entercom Hot AC WZPL/Indianapolis is still on the rampage for new listeners! Personalities from the station have been filling potholes in city streets, working as cafeteria servers, volunteering at the Humane Society, playing the Easter Bunny, and morning host Dave Smiley is teaching a Zumba Latin aerobics dance class! The station is also hosting the 5th annual Adult Prom this year, which is already sold out. The event promises over 600 people dressed in formals dancing to cheesy deejay music in a gym, just like in high school. Except this prom has a cash bar! (Editor's note: My prom had a cash bar! It was called, “Whatever we could sneak into the punch bowl...”)

The National Association of Recording Merchandisers (NARM) Insights & Sounds convention will take place starting April 29 and running through May 2 at the Hilton Chicago. An Achievement Award will be presented to Don Cornelius, the creator of Soul Train. Chicago will also be performing, and there will be an interview with Chaka Khan.

Two-thirds of all Americans listen to traditional, terrestrial radio on a daily basis. No surprise there, right? But did you know that number of those who listen to the radio streaming over the internet has doubled in the past few months? This according to American Media Services Radio Index, which revealed that 67% of those surveyed listen to a station online, while only 36% did in 2005. The poll suggest that the Internet is becoming the main conduit for traditional radio programming. While most would suspect that internet radio listening is done at the office, the majority of it is actually being done in private homes. AMS President/CEO Edward Seeger observed, "There's no question that listening to the radio over the Internet is well on its way to becoming more of a rule than an exception. While most people still listen to radio via traditional over-the-air signals and receivers, it's also apparent that more and more consumers are finding the internet a convenient way to tune to their favorite stations. It is because of this growing trend in listening habits that we formed American Media Services-Internet to assist radio properties in the development of this new outlet for their programming."

Bob Sirott, veteran Chicago radio and TV man, has joined forces with Tribune Talk WGN-AM/Chicago to host a weekday noon news magazine. WGN has opted to bring back it's old "Noon Show" format, which will see a move of John Williams to the 1-4p slot and Steve Cochran at the 4-7p slot.

Changes, Too. Adult Hits WNTR PD Tom Watson is exiting. Scott Sands will assume the day-to-day role of PD for The Track, as well as for sister stations Talk WXNT-AM and Hot AC WZPL...John Stephens, jock at Mid-West Family Oldies KOSP/Springfield, MO is leaving, and other changes at the station will follow. Morning man Mike Roberts changes his day around to take care of afternoons, while Summer Stevens moves to morning with Mike Edwards. Lisa Robbins joins in at the midday from Clear Channel Adult Hits KTOZ...Aaron Traylor has said goodbye to Clear Channel KSAS/Boise where he was doing management duties, and moves to Blue Point Media KENR/Missoula to be their PD...Former Clear Channel Top 40 WDKF/Dayton morning jock/Creative Services Dir. Clayton makes the move to Cinci at Bonneville Alternative WSWD as their new middayer...Men's basketball at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee is moving from Clear Channel Oldies WOKY-AM to Talk WISN-AM for the next four years.

"Coins For a Spirit Cruiser," the new fundraiser from Friendship Communications' Christian CHR KWOF/Cedar Rapids, IA, is under way and collecting spare change. The goal is to collect 4,000 pounds of change to help with the purchase of a new vehicle for the station, hopefully by the time the "Freedom Festival" rolls around on June 23.

Candy & Potter, of Lincoln Financial Media Hot AC WLNK/Charlotte, NC, are well into their "Naked Idol Draft." Every show member posts a picture of themselves in their birthday suits, covered by the face of the remaining American Idol contestants. The contestants were chosen by Candy, Potter, and Producer Greg back when there were 12 finalists, and as each has been voted off, more skin is revealed. The winner gets 1,000 to the charity of his or her choice! You can check out the shenanigans at www.candyandpotter.com. You might remember Potter from last October's TalenTrak in Charlotte!

A new host is needed at Bonneville Country WUBE/Cincinnati, for the Saturday "B-105 All Request Party." Big Dave, the regular host, will be turning things over to the new guy or gal, chosen by B-105 listeners. To get in the pool, send your T&R's to WUBE at 2060 Reading Road, Cincinnati, OH 45203, attn: B-105 Radio Idol.

More Changes. The newly-formed company Focus 360 is developing multi-platform marketing programs, and has just appointed Joan E. Gerberding as President of LocalFocus, the division of the company that offers services outside of major markets. Gerberding has been in radio many years, and has had management positions at Nassau Broadcasting Partners, Arbitron, and Access.1 Communications...Jay Richardson and Dave Lewis are the new afternoon drivers at Corus Radio Active Rock CJKR/Winnipeg...PD Tom Watson, of Entercom/Indianapolis's Adult Hits WNTR is leaving the station for new pastures. Scott Sands, currently the Dir./Operations & Programming will assume his duties...Afternoon for CBS Radio WDOK/Cleveland Chris Fox has exited, and will be replaced by part-time jock Bob McKay for the interim...Mike Charley signed off this week at Midwest Family Country WWQM/Madison. He's going to focus on his voice agency Planet Charley Productions, LLC.

Three Eagles Communications has purchased twelve Clear Channel stations in Minnesota and Iowa, and will sell seven of its stations to Coloff Media, which owns five other stations in Iowa.

Edgewater Broadcasting has purchased a construction permit for a new noncommercial FM Station in Grand Island, NE from Stockton Christian Life College, Inc for $45,000. It will be a 2,000 watt signal at 148 feet on 91.5 FM. H & H Broadcasting Corporation has sold Country KLBA/Albia, IA to Joe Milledge's Waveguide Communications, Inc. for $160,000 cash.

Jeff Smulyan will not be purchasing the Chicago Cubs, according to a spokeswoman for Emmis Communications. Smulyan is a former own of the Seattle Mariners, and did give any specifics on why he's not interested in the Cubs, who will be sold after the 2007 season as part of Sam Zell's takeover of Tribune Co.

More Changes, Too. KCLD, the Leighton Top 40 out of St. Cloud, is streaming on the net. Listen at <http://1047kclld.com>...Former Clear Channel Top 40 WDKF/Dayton morning/Creative Services Dir. Clayton is hopping on board at Bonneville Alternative WSWD/Cincinnati as the new midday host...Clear Channel KSAS/Boise says goodbye to Aaron Traylor, as he departs from his management duties with the station. Traylor will be the new PD at Blue Point Media Rhythmic AC KENR/Missoula, MT.
