LAST CALL TO SAVE MONEY! These are the last four days to save on tuition to the industry's premier educational conference "Conclave 007: Radio Under Construction." Take a minute now to keep $100 in your pocket by locking in the $199 tuition rate by using the easy-to-use order form found at www.theconclave.com or by calling 952-927-4487 before Tuesday, May 1. The 2007 Learning Conference, being held at the Marriott City Center Hotel in Minneapolis, will kick-off on Thursday June 28 with the McVay Media Summit: "Programming for Tomorrow," followed by the exclusive four-hour Promotion Summit presented by PromoSuite and R&R. Then, it's two more days of learning, problem solving, networking and fun! The new tuition rate of only $299 – still the lowest price of ANY industry conference – will last through Thursday, May 31! April 30 is also the deadline to take advantage of our special construction group rates of $350 for two, $450 for three or $700 for five people. On May 1, the construction group rates will rise to $550 for two, $750 for three and $900 for five – which STILL represent great bargains for the nation's premiere Radio Learning Conference. Get your work crew together now and have even more money to spend in Minneapolis. Speaking of saving money, all registrants are eligible for special discounted sleeping room rates at the host hotel, Marriott City Center. Rooms that normally list for $209 or more are available for $123 per night (single/double plus tax) until the inventory is gone. That means a Conclave attendee can save over $250 in hotel costs over the three-day Conference weekend! But rooms can only be secured by registering for the 32nd Annual Learning Conference – when these rooms are gone, they're gone! So, register today!

Congratulations to Conclave Board member, Lester St. James, as he takes the reins as OM of Three Eagles/Lincoln cluster! Lester will be overseeing programming for an eventual six stations, after FCC and DOJ diversification of the recent Clear Channel additions is completed. Before joining Three Eagles, Lester was programmer at KEZO/Omaha. He's been in the industry for over 25 years, with previous stints at Wichita; Carbondale, IL; Evansville, IN; and Sioux Falls, SD.

The battle is on between last year's Conclave keynoter, Rev. Al Sharpton, and rap artists using offensive lyrics in their music. Sharpton is taking cause to the boardrooms in New York this week, and says he plans to buy stock in Time Warner and Universal Music Group, which own the rap labels Def Jam and Roc-A-Fella. He will use his National Action Network to make the purchases, and plans to attend board meetings to directly complain to the sources of misogynistic lyrics. He noted, "Some of the stockholders have no idea that they own stock in a parent company that own companies calling them 'bitches' and 'ho's.'" Sharpton will also head up a "decency march" next month, targeting Sony, Time Warner, and Universal Music Group.

Don Imus has legal representation, as reported by Businessweek magazine this week. He's hired powerhouse Martin Garbus to represent him, although his legal concerns are unknown, as Imus has declined to discuss why he was hired. There was a sentence on Garbus' personal blog this week about representing Imus "in a dispute with CBS," but that sentence has since been deleted. Garbus has represented such icons as Lenny Bruce, NYC mayor Michael Bloomberg, Nancy Reagan, and rap group Public Enemy. A spokeswoman for CBS would not comment on the matter, but Imus had recently signed a contract with CBS that would have paid him about $10 million a year for the next five years. His dismissal has lead to press buzz about how it will affect the company. MSNBC has also declined to comment on the matter.

Executive Producer of "Imus in the Morning," Bernard McGuirk has been fired by CBS Sports WFAN-AM/New York. McGuirk was responsible for some of the comments made on the incendiary show that brought the shock jock down a few weeks ago. McGuirk joined the show in 1987 and provided character voices and comments for the show. Rob Bartlett, another character sidekick, told Opie and Anthony last week that he does not yet know whether he's been fired or not, but added, "It's [Imus' firing] like getting the death penalty for traffic violation."

The MSNBC morning TV slot left vacant by Don Imus is being filled by Jones' Stephanie Miller! She'll appear Monday through Wednesday of next week, replacing this week's host Michael Smerconish of WPHT-AM/Philadelphia. There were whispers that ESPN's "Pardon the Interruption" and WTWP-AM/FM/Washington host Tony Kornheiser would be next week's auditioner, but this has proved to be false.

The lawsuit involving CBS Radio and Talk KCAA-AM/San Bernardino-Riverside has reached a settlement. The station agrees to end its reruns of Imus shows, and CBS will drop its demand for $150,000-per-episode damages. The settlement plan will go before U.S. District Judge Virginia Phillips next Monday.

College Creek Media LLC, owned by one Chris Devine, has decided to sell its construction permit for two new FM's in Paxton and Sutherland, NE to Legacy Communications, LLC, owned by Jay Vavricek. The price is set for $475,000, and there is also a time brokerage agreement, which allows the buyer to build and manage the stations prior to closing.

Cleveland's Radio One Urban WENZ is hosting its 8th annual BirthDay Bash this week at the Cleveland Plain Dealer Pavilion. The event will feature the music of Bow Wow, Crime Mob, Huey, Sammie, and Jibbs. Besides their performances, the artists will be keynoters as well, waxing on how their music has influenced hip-hop. WENZ air personalities will moderate the event. WENZ PD Kim Johnson commented, "This year as the music and the culture continue to change to include not only urban but suburban teens, we want to make sure that as the audience parties that they also respect the artistry and the entertainment value of what is the new pop culture."

Music legend and 2003 Conclave Legend Willie Nelson, along with his tour manager, has successfully avoided jail time following a misdemeanor count of possession of marijuana. Also included in the altercation with the law was Nelson's sister, Bobbie, and two bus drivers, who were all issued citations last September after state troopers found marijuana and hallucinogenic mushrooms on the group's tour bus. Judge Paul Demahy fined Nelson and tour manager David Anderson $1,024 each and put both on a six-month probation. In the bargain, the citation against Bobbie was dismissed.

Andrew Zimmern, celeb chef and TV host in the Twin Cities, is joining up with Hubbard Talk WFMP/Minneapolis-St. Paul for a talk show 1-3 weekdays, starting in June. He currently hosts "Bizarre Foods with Andrew Zimmern" and has been doing a Saturday show called "Chowhounds," at Clear Channel Talk KTLK-FM. He also does food segments for Fox KMSP/Minneapolis and is a restaurant critic for Mpls/St. Paul Magazine

McVay To Summit-All-Up at Learning Conference! On Thursday morning, June 28 from 8:30 a.m. until noon at the Marriott City Center Hotel in Minneapolis, McVay Media will present The Programming Summit during "Conclave 007: Radio Under Construction." Anchored by 2004 Rockwell Award recipient and McVay Media President, Mike McVay, the summit is designed to educate and inform as well as ignite creative thinking. Here is the summit's line-up: Critical Mass Media's Carolyn Gilbert and Liz Pokora will present the ultimate study on "Marketing That Works" and "The Impact of Present Day Ratings and the PPM." This study, conducted with 30,000 people nationwide, will reveal who's participating in research in 2007 and the techniques used to find them. If you want listeners, you have to know whom they are and how to reach them before you can market to them. In "Talking to Women", GreenStone Media will share information culled from their experiences producing this new style of programming for women. Talking with women, whether you're a man or a woman, requires specific knowledge. You'll be surprised and enlightened to hear how women think and communicate! As part of this enlightening session, Jayne-FM - a brand new AC format that's not 'girly,' 'gossipy' or 'cutesy,' with a deep, highly tested library – will take center stage. Robin Marshall, President/Creative Director of Marshall Arts and the creator of Jayne-FM will teach you how to speak directly to your female audience in a way that no other station does, while making sure not to alienate men.

Marshall Arts VP/Operations Tony Florentino will join Robin for the morning's presentation! There will also be a special musical performance by INO/Columbia Records recording artist Chris Rice. Please RSVP for The Programming Summit via e-mail at mcvaymedia02@aol.com. All Conclave attendees are welcome!

Former Talk KRCN-AM/Denver "Business For Breakfast" co-host Scott Cortelyou has pleaded guilty in a previously arranged plea bargain to a felony charge of two class 5 felony charges of trying to lure who he thought was a 12 year old girl into sex on the internet. He will have to register as a sex offender, but it is unlikely he will have to serve jail time. Cortelyou is a veteran news and business anchor/reporter who has worked at several Denver stations. He was arrested on the charges in January.

Morning co-host for Radio One Top 40 WGTZ/Dayton Scott Mallory has checked in and reported, "WGTZ has been hitting the streets with our 'Miami-Valley Cares Card.' It's a giant card that people are signing for the student body of Virginia Tech. We'll be sending the card to the student government on the VT campus. Former American Idol contestant and Virginia native Elliot Yamin stopped by and we had him sign the card and talk about VT."

The adventure of making the next generation's non-commercial media continues on at RadioMilwaukee with the Public Radio Talent Quest. This national competition will award 10 contestants with cash and the three finalists will have the opportunity to create a radio show pitch for the Corporation for Public Broadcasting. Exec. Dir. J. Mikel Ellcessor decided to co-sponsor the event because he feels it's a great way to bring voices from the community to the airwaves. He noted, "By co-sponsoring Talent Quest, we wanted to create another platform where the world could discover how many talented, creative people call Milwaukee home."

Just some of the big winners at the 16th Annual Detroit Music Awards were Bob Seger, Iggy Pop, Trick Trick, Jill Jack, Liz Larin, The Brother Groove, Hot Club of Detroit, Jesse Palter, Orquesta Sensacional, and Amp Fiddler this week! The awards took place last Friday night at the State Theatre in Detroit. Seger took home three DMA's: Outstanding National Major Label Recording for his album "Face the Promise," And Outstanding National Single and Outstanding Video, Major Budget for "Wait For Me." Pop won the Outstanding Anthology/Compilation/Reissue category for "20th Century Master-Millennium Collection: Iggy Pop." The awards are given by the Motor City Music Foundation, and presented in 70 categories.

As we approach the 32nd annual Learning Conference in June, it should be remembered that the event would not be happening if it were not for the support of major sponsors of the Conclave, like Platinum Partner – Radio & Records. Partners Arbitron, AudioXChange/BitXChange,

A daily blog and podcast will keep those interested up to date on what's happening. Check it out at www.project100radio.com. For more info, you can get in touch with Baldwin at 740-707-5544 or email him at mitch@project100radio.com.
