

Are You Going To The Job Fair? (Parsley, Sage, Rosemary & Thyme...) Saturday, June 30TH is the date for the Conclave & Brown College Learning Conference Job Fair. The best news about the Job Fair, which will run from 9 AM until 11:30AM at the Marriott City Centre in Downtown Minneapolis: it's FREE for both employers and job seekers! Any participating employer who isn't already registered for the 32nd annual Learning Conference can take in the remainder of Saturday's conference agenda for only be $59 - which includes lunch! The Job Fair is designed to assist OWNERSHIP and MANAGEMENT in their quest to fulfill their challenging EEO requirements, while allowing job hopefuls a little "one stop shopping" by providing the possibilities of new opportunities, all under one roof. Employers will have access to the professionally charged atmosphere for which the Conclave has become famous and applicants will meet representatives of innovative, creative companies who are interested in hiring the best talent available. "The response to these Job Fairs has always been strong, "said Karol Baumeister/Brown College Placement Dir., "Brown and The Conclave are proud to present an opportunity for our industry to tap into the talent everyone says is so sorely needed in our ranks, and gives those who are unemployed or underemployed a chance to discover new vocational homes. In addition, we're happy to present our Job Fair to help owners and managers fulfill the government's mandates on recruitment and diversity." She added, "Like last year, every employer who conducts interviews at the Fair will be receiving valuable documentation they can use as proof of their outreach in hiring. It's another way the Conclave adds value to its Learning Conference - and to radio." Employers interested in reserving a table are encouraged to contact Karol Baumeister of Brown College at 651-905-3499 or Tom Kay of the Conclave at 952-927-4487 to reserve space. Space is limited to the first fifteen employers who respond by Friday, June 19th - so hurry!

James Ingstadt's Top 40 WDAY and Classic Rock KRWK/Fargo had a major catastrophe last Friday night; their radio tower caught fire. The blaze was reported by a listener near the tower at 5:46pm, after seeing the smoke and flame coming from near the top of the tower, near Amenia, ND. A large amount of transmission equipment was burned and fell to the ground, causing a grass fire. Fortunately, no one was hurt, although the cause remains unknown. Both stations were off the air for approximately 90 minutes after the conflagration. Y94 and Rock 102 are now broadcasting at a much-reduced power of about 3,000 watts. Radio Fargo-Moorhead OM John Austin noted, "We're working very hard to correct this unfortunate situation as quickly as possible. We appreciate our listeners who stick with us during this time and we anticipate returning to full power very soon."

Arbitron has retained former RAB President/CEO Gary Fries as a consultant! Fries was the head of Radio Advertising Bureau for 15 years, and plans to assist the company tend to the needs of station owners and operators in markets 100-300. Fries will also lead a meeting between Arbitron and small-market customers at the Owner Operator Caucus on June 20 in Chicago, referring to the series of meetings as "town-hall meetings," where smallmarket broadcasters will be encouraged to voice their needs. President/Sales & Marketing Pierre Bouvard commented, "Gary Fires is the perfect choice for helping Arbitron understand the needs of small-market broadcasters. His advice was invaluable while he was a member of Arbitron's Radio Advisory Council, and we look forward to hearing his straightforward advice about small markets." Fries noted, "The needs in these markets are different, and I look forward to working with broadcasters and Arbitron to improve the value proposition."

Kris Kelley, Clear Channel Urban WGCI/Chicago PD, has hit up Kenard "K2" Karter to be the new MD. Karter is taking the place of Tiffany Green, who left last year. As a Chicago native, Karter came on board at WGCI three years ago, and has played the production assistant role at the station, as well as doing overnight weekend shifts. He'll keep with those shifts. Kelley stated, "Kenard is an intelligent, highly motivated and talented professional who will make an excellent addition to WGCI's programming team. I'm excited about his appointment as MD and look forward to his contributions to the station." Karter is excite about the new position, as he said, "I come from very humble beginnings and feel extremely blessed to have this opportunity to work alongside Kris Kelley. I am so thankful for my music production experience, specialized computer skills, and ability to effectively interact with record companies and recording artists."

Five More Conclave Scholarship Recipients Announced! The Conclave is home to over $70,000 worth of scholarships given annually to deserving students. To that end, today the Conclave announced the remaining five Conclave scholarship recipients for 2007. The three winners of the Doug Lee Memorial Baccalaureate Scholarships – presented in honor of the Conclave's founder - will be awarded to the following students from the state of Illinois: Katie Day Good from Chicago Loyola University, Jennie Keohane from Northwestern University, and Colin Shaughnessy of Columbia College. All three are natives of Illinois. The Marc Birgir Memorial Scholarship, presented in memory of the late Nielsen Entertainment/BDS Radio executive, will be given to Aubrie Berneski, a student attending Birger's alma mater of Kean University/New Jersey. Aubrie hails from Kearny, NJ. And The Dan Kieley Memorial Scholarship, presented in memory of the late prominent programmer, consultant, and former Conclave Board member, will be presented to Todd Crotty – a student at Brown College, and a native of the Quad Cities. These five individuals will join previously announced recipients of the Bill Gavin, Dennis Becker, and McNally-Smith scholarships - Darryl Landry, Tyler Kes, and Shana Smith - in receiving their prizes at the Awards Luncheon presented by Arbitron on Friday, June 29th at the Marriott City Center. Please join other the Learning Conference registrants in saluting these outstanding students and future decision-makers of our industry!

Condolences to friends and family of Paul Christy (Paul Christides), legendary Detroit personality who died this week after a long illness at the age of 69. An alleged tantrum has landed host Donnie "The Freakin" Puerto Rican" Devoe an arrest this week, after an incident at a Calumet City restaurant. Devoe is host a Crawford Urban WPWX/Chicago in the afternoons. He was arrested after patrons at Pepe's Mexican Restaurant identified him as the man who they claimed argued with a woman over a cell phone and flashed a gun at a bouncer at the restaurant. After he was tracked down in his car, he was charged with two counts of assault, one count of criminal damage to property, and two counts of disorderly conduct. He was released after posting bail, and no gun was found in Devoe's car or on his person. He faces a July 6 hearing, and hosted his show as usual this week on Thursday afternoon.

Learning Conference Produces! Conclave 007: RADIO UNDER CONSTRUCTION will construct important production building blocks to make your station sound great. On Saturday, June 30 at the Marriott City Center in Minneapolis, learn how to separate your station from the radio clutter by attending, "You're Making a Big Production Out of This!" Moderated by OM/RP Broadcasting's Chuck Sebastian, this production session will explain what separates an also-ran from a winner on the dial. Are your listeners hearing the same tired-old sounds accompanying promos, commercials, and music beds, losing them to the guys down the street who know how to provide digital sex-appeal for the ear buds? Great production is the product of technique, common sense, the right software, appropriate hardware and lots of imagination. Learn how to use all the above in this hard-hitting production expose! Joining Chuck are Atlanta voice talent Rich Van Slyke, Sirius Satellite Radio's Jake Redman, and CBS/Minneapolis Production Director Diana Nelson.

Cumulus/Ann Arbor, MI, welcomes University of Michigan football team today as the boys take over the cluster to benefit the UM C.S. Mott Children's Hospital and Women's Hospital. They'll be on-air statewide as they are broadcast on The Huge Show, hosted by Bill Simonson in Grand Rapids. Lloyd Carr, head coach, and several other coaches, players, and former players, will be talking shop all day in addition to raising awareness for the hospitals and accepting pledges. The cluster includes Country WWWW, Sports/Talk WTKA-AM, Talk WLBY-AM, and AAA WQKL.
