Radio One dropped the bomb this week that KTTB/Minneapolis has been sold to Northern Lights Broadcasting LLC. Northern Lights is a new company purchased by the Carl Pohlad family – owners of the Minnesota Twins – and will be headed up by veteran Twin Cities broadcaster Steve Woodbury, who has been the station's VP/GM. He'll now be elevated to Pres./CEO. Some financing for the deal comes from Carl Pohlad, owner of the Minnesota Twins, who is reportedly contemplating more broadcast outlets. Woodbury commented that Pohlad bought KTTB "just to get into the industry." He went on to say, "My charge is to find other radio stations and possibly TV and build a little media group." Woodbury started his search for investors in late 2005 after Radio One execs informed him they were interested in selling the station. The old owners felt that the Twin Cities area does not have a large enough black population to support the KTTB format. Woodbury pitched the station to Pohlad, who then analyzed the business, deeming it "very profitable," although Woodbury wouldn't reveal exact numbers. KTTB will retain its format and staff. "I've grown up in the radio business and I believe local broadcast ownership is important." In addition to the Twins, Pohlad and his three sons have holdings in financial services, soft drinks, and jewelry. Comment: Will the station ultimately carry Twins games, now contracted to Hubbard Broadcasting for the next 4 years? All the proper denials have been issued. Said Steve of the coincidence of a baseball owner buying a radio station: "it was never discussed or brought up." Uh, yeah, right. The Twins move into a new outdoor stadium for the 2010 season, which should give Northern Lights time to find another property or two...and an opportunity for the AL team to have TWO new homes by 2011 - TK

Glenn Beck – 2006 Conclave Keynote - is attempting to extract his foot from him mouth this week, as he angered Rep. Dennis Kucinich this week by lampooning him as being reminiscent of "Gollum" from Lord of the Rings, and saying that Kucinich's wife must have been under the influence of a date rape drug if she found the politician attractive. The Washington Post suggested that Bonneville Talk WTWP-AM/FM/Washington considers that adding Beck has attracted the attention of the Council on American-Islamic Relations, which instructed its members to inundate WTWP's Joel Oxley with "polite comments." It also asked its members to send emails to management at Bonneville's Talk KIRO-AM/Seattle to protest host Dori Monson's discussion of whether employers can deny Muslims jobs because of their faith.

Morning radio personality in Kansas City Randy Miller is adding on TV reality/dating show host to his resume, with a new show on Meredith My Network TV affiliate KSMO-TV/Kansas City. Miller joined Rich Davis in Brainstorm Media, a marketing, production, and syndication company, and also appears on CBS affiliate KCTV-TV's morning show.

Minor league hockey team Milwaukee Admirals move from Good Karma Sports WAUW-AM/WMCS-AM/Milwaukee to Entercom Sports WSSP-AM for their 2007-2008 season. Chicago author Rick Kaempfer is currently interviewing former and current radio personalities in the Chicago area. The once-a-week feature focuses this week on Greg Brown, who's worked at nearly every music station up and down the FM dial. He was most recently at the former Oldies WJMK, and has some great stories about each place he's been. Greg is also the first person to ever broadcast live on HD radio, and he'll share his prediction about the future of the medium.

A big "kudos" to the listeners of Mid-West Family AC WMGN/Madison, who contributed over $102,000 for Madison's coming-soon "Gilda's Club." The building will break ground this fall and is scheduled to open in spring of '08. OM Pat O'Neill noted, "Our three-day 'Concert for Gilda's Club' aired June 6-8, featuring 37 hours of our AC format, 'live in-concert style.' This was our second 'Concert' for the organization...both times we surpassed our $98,000 goal."

America's fastest rising talk radio stars and bestselling author – Neal Boortz - will keynote Conclave 007-RADIO UNDER CONSTRUCTION on Friday, June 29th, at the Marriott City Center Hotel in Minneapolis, Minnesota! Self-proclaimed as "America's most under-rated and over-paid radio talk show host", Neal makes his first appearance at the Conclave Learning Conference and pragmatically instructs those who will be present for his keynote to do the same thing he asks his listeners to do: "Don't believe anything you hear unless it is consistent with what you already know to be true, or unless you have taken the time to research the matter to prove its accuracy to your satisfaction!" A radio personality who labels himself as the High Priest of the Church of the Painful Truth, Boortz promises an hour of thought-provoking, gut-wrenching, and non-traditional advice for living in these turbulent times while attempting to scratch out a living in this wild, wonderful and wacky world of radio. His latest book is Somebody's Gotta Say It, a compilation of topics from his radio shows and his life, also sits at the top of the nation's bestseller lists! Neal hits the Learning Conference stage on Friday morning, June 29th. You've GOTTA see him to believe him!
