TATTLE R

Publisher: Tom Kay Editor: Kate Kennedy
Cartoons Pilfered by Lenny Bronstein & Jay Philpott

The nation watched as a Duluth court decided yesterday that Jammie Thomas was guilty of copyright infringement for 24 recordings she shared over peer-to-peer service Kazaa. The verdict for $222,000 in damages came in the first trial held in a suit filed against a consumer by 6 major labels for P2P filesharing. The RIAA, who pursued the case, issued this statement: "We welcome the jury's decision. The law here is clear, as are the consequences for breaking it. As with all our cases, we seek to resolve them quickly in a fair and reasonable manner. When the evidence is clear, we will continue to bring legal actions against those individuals who have broken the law. This program is important to securing a level playing field for legal online music services and helping ensure that record companies are able to invest in new bands of tomorrow." The labels sued the single mother for 24 recordings, a sample of the 1,702 audio files they claimed Thomas shared over Kazaa two winters ago. The recordings included titles by Janet Jackson, Richard Marx, Journey, Godsmack and Green Day. The labels claimed that their digital sleuth SafeNet detected an individual using a specific IP address and the username tereastarr@kazaa to distribute 1,702 audio files in the individual's "shared" folder on her computer. Charter Communications, identified as the ISP associated with her IP address, identified her as the offending subscriber. Thomas denied that she was involved in any file sharing. The jury didn't believe her and awarded the labels $9,250 per recording, finding that Thomas willfully infringed the labels' recordings. At press time, there was no word on whether or not she would appeal the verdict.

A few weeks ago, the TATTLE R told you a Cincy talk station was under fire by Hispanic groups for what they claimed to be anti-Latino marketing campaigns, Clear Channel talker WLW and host Bill Cunningham enraged the Muslim interest group CAIR by asserting that one of the goals of Islam to is have "sex with children for eternity." The Cincinnati office of the Council On American-Islamic Relations' Ohio chapter (CAIR-OHIO) is now insisting that Cunningham be reprimanded for saying "The great war of this generation's time is the war against Islamic fascists ... They do not live for life, they live for death. Only through death can they believe they can be with those 72 virgins in heaven and have sex with children for eternity, which is the goal of that religion." Cunningham had already come under community scrutiny when he was forced to apologize to apologize to Cincinnati Reds player Adam Dunn for suggesting that Adam played while inebriated. This new controversy comes just days before his "Voice of the Common Man" show replaces Matt Drudge's Sunday show on 325 stations, nationally.

"...A Little Bit of Hafner In Your Face...!" Salem Christian AC WFHM (The Fish 95.5)/Cleveland produced a Cleveland Indians themed parody of Lou Bega's "Mambo Number Five" earlier this week, entitled "Mambo for the Tribe". As the week progressed, other Cleveland area stations picked up on the song, like Clear Channel Hot AC WKDD/Akron and CBS AC WDOK/Cleveland. The parody was produced by WFHM'S Dale Officer and Nick Kubik using the nom de plume of "Lou Besbol". It's available for download for a buck ninety-five through <http://www.955thefish.com> or on Officer and Kubik's production website <http://hitzthespot.com>. Must have worked - at least last night - in the Tribe's 12-3 thumping of the Yanks!

Changes. Chuck Collins is the new Rubber City Radio/Akron OM. He's been promoted from PD...Celebrity chef and TV personality Andrew Zimmern leaves his weekday show at Hubbard Talk WFMP (FM 107.1)/Twin Cities, citing time and travel difficulties...Longtime Classical WFMT/Chicago midday host Don Tait retires after 35 years at the station...Former Citadel Country KSCS/DALLAS OM/PD and Zapoleon Media Strategies consultant Lorin Palagi has been named PD at CBS Classic Rock WTGB (94.7 THE GLOBE)/Washington, D.C....Longtime Emmis Talk WIBC/Indianapolis morning host Jeff Pigeon exits the station.

THE LAST GOODNIGHT
"Pictures of You"

Working the Phone-ies! Premiere's Rush Limbaugh accused DC Democrats as being behind the call to censure him for his comments on anti-war troops, and further accused them of misrepresenting his comments in an attempt to discredit him. "This is not just the anatomy of a smear. There's much more going on with this than just smearing me. There is an attempt, I think, as they have done throughout my career, to discredit me. Using the traditional verbal crutch used by so many talk-show hosts to identify the opposition – "These people" – he said, "have had three, four days now to learn the truth about this, and they no doubt know the truth, which doesn't matter. What they are trying to do is flood a false story into the 'drive-by media' and have that survive and suffice as the evidence and as the story of what I said when it wasn't." Senate Democrats demanded an apology for his remark to a pro-war soldier that that the soldiers promoted in the news media as representing anti-war sentiment in the military are "phony soldiers." Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid said, "Rush Limbaugh took it upon himself to attack the courage and character of those fighting and dying for him and for all of us. Rush Limbaugh got himself a deferment from serving when he was a young man. He never served in uniform. He never saw in person the extreme difficulty of maintaining peace in a foreign country engaged in a civil war. He never saw a person in combat. Yet, that he thinks his opinion on the war is worth more than those who have been on the front lines. Rush Limbaugh owes the men and women of our armed forces an apology." Limbaugh defended himself, indicating the "phony soldier" was Jesse Macbeth, who was convicted of fraud and had falsely claimed to have participated in war crimes in Iraq. Limbaugh could not explain why he then used the plural "soldiers" when he claimed to have been speaking about one person. Commentary – Clear Channel's Mark Mays correctly defends his host's right to speak his mind, citing Rush's First Amendment freedoms. One can only wonder how Mays might have responded had Limbaugh added "...and nappy-headed ho's" to his acerbic barb. Still, we don't fault Limbaugh for his seemingly unpatriotic faux pas. We think it may have just been the oxycontin talking. - TK former employee. Denise Redding, a former company comptroller, said she was terminated because she is African-American and because she refused to sign-off on certain financial statements. She claimed one of her bosses - Radio One VP/GM Chuck Williams – used those statements to misrepresent revenue results and alleges that WILLIAMS (a Caucasian male) treated African-American staff members – including her - differently. A lawyer for the company, Brandon Shelton, said "There is no merit in Ms. Redding's allegations and we believe the litigation process will reveal that." Redding is asking for owed benefits and $80,000 in back pay, adding additional monies for emotional distress.

Chicago Cubs broadcaster Len Kasper has been tapped to keynote the 2007 edition of the Conclave's TalenTrak on Saturday, November 10th at Columbia College/Chicago! Kasper, a Milwaukee native, is finishing his third season with the Cubs after doing Florida Marlins play-by-play for three years for Fox Sports Net. Len will address TalenTrakkers on the subject of identifying and seizing industry opportunities, while providing tips on honing and improving one's individual skills in order to take hold of and maximize those opportunities! He might even drop in a few fun, behind-the-mic stories of the Cubs magical 2007 season (at this writing, the Cubbies are in first place the NL Central!) TalenTrak is the only meeting in the industry that devotes a full day toward one purpose: Making better air talent. In an intensive and fun daylong seminar, you'll hear from seasoned radio professionals about important aspects of career advancement, employment strategies and how to deal with everything from irate listeners to office politics. There's even time set aside for you to meet one-on-one with radio professionals who will listen to your air checks and offer constructive advice on how to improve your on-air work. TalenTrak will be held November 10, 2007 at Columbia College in the heart of downtown Chicago. Tuition for the day is just $49 ($39 student/educator/free agent), and it includes lunch! To register, visit www.theconclave.com. Look for the TalenTrak story, and click on the link featured to download a registration pdf document. The official TalenTrak hotel is the Travelodge Hotel, just one-half block from Columbia College. To secure a specially priced TalenTrak room at the Travelodge, contact TalenTrak room coordinator Darren Andrews at 312-376-1481 or at his email address: travelodgechicago@yahoo.com.

The Conclave needs a Fundraiser!

Congrats to Brown College instructor and former Conclave Board member Mike Kronforst, who was recognized at Brown College graduation ceremonies Wednesday night for his 35 years at the school. He received a plaque for his achievement! Reputedly Mike responded with, "The plaque is wonderful...but I was kinda hoping for a car!"

Rumor: Is Chicago ready to "Fresh"-en up CBS talker WCKG?

Ever wonder what the world would be like if you weren't a part of it? That's the marketing premise pursued by CBS AAA WXRT/Chicago when they asked listeners to imagine what Chicago would be like without it. WXRT's new interactive ad campaign involves big time advertising on taxi tops, buses and billboards. The scheme – which asks listeners to complete the following sentence on the station website "Chicago without WXRT would be..." - was developed in-house and then farmed out to Brainforest/Chicago to become reality. Responses will be posted online, and the better contributions will become part of the station's outdoor ad campaign. Sample completions to Chicago without XRT: "would be New York," "would be not my kind of town," and " would be a city with no soul."

One more use for Craigslist: selling radio stations. Rob Combs, who owns the currently silent KDJQ-AM/Meridian-Boise, ID has posted the station for sale on Craigslist. Asking price? $800,000 for the station, just reduced from $1.2 million! Hmm, let's see...I need a refrigerator, but there's that radio station that'd look good in my den...

The late WGN/Chicago air talent, Bob Collins, was not at fault in the airplane collision that cost him his life. A federal judge has ruled that Collins was only 5% at fault in the collision that killed him and two others. U.S. District Judge John Darrah placed the primary blame on the Federal Aviation Administration and the air traffic controller, Midwest Air Traffic Control Services. The judge said the air traffic controller had gone 7 hours without a break, a clear violation of FAA rules. The tired controller then ignored the spacing of the aircraft, and failed to warn them of the dangers their closeness could bring. Collins' role in the crash, said the Judge, was his failure to tell the FAA about his diabetic condition.

Midwest Family Top 40 WIZM (Z93)/LaCrosse loves Oktoberfest – but not necessarily for the reason you might think! The station's "Z-Care" charity fund launched Oktober-Breast, where the station teamed up with a local sponsor and collected bras for the past few weeks and offering to donate $2 to local breast cancer research for each bra collected. The "Bra"-zen quest for undergarments raised close to $9,000 for the city's local Komen foundation center.

CBS talker WKRK/Detroit flipped to all-sports yesterday as WXYT-FM, "Detroit's Sports Powerhouse" in a simulcast with AM sister WXYT-AM.
