The Clear Channel buyout by Bain Capital and Thomas H. Lee Partners is official according to the FCC. The decision was voted unanimously on January 8th provided that Lee's interest in Cumulus be divested. The Commission also released its report on broadcast localism, which was announced on December 18. Comments on the docket are due 30 days after publication in the Federal Register, with replies due 60 days after publication.

In poor taste? CBS Adult Hits WJMK/Chicago has stopped "Win a date with Drew," featuring Drew Peterson, the policeman whose wife Stacy disappeared last October. Morning man Steve Dahl played several parodies imitating and making fun of Peterson who remains a suspect in the disappearance of his wife. WJMK GM Peter Bowen said the station never intended to have such a game, asserting that Peterson and his attorney approached the station — not the other way around. Brodsky claims the contest was Dahl's idea and told NBC5 the station is being hypocritical, "They make money by letting Steve Dahl do Drew Peterson comedy bits, songs and impersonations, but now they are too high and mighty and say they will not even let Drew on the air. If Drew, who has not been charged with a crime, can't even call into the show, then the station should stop Steve Dahl from doing Drew Peterson comedy bits. Otherwise, the managers of WJMK 104.3 are just hypocrites."

The Conclave has released a unique, track-oriented agenda for the upcoming Learning Conference 08: AT THE CROSSROADS scheduled for June 26-28, 2007 in Minneapolis, MN. Conclave Board Chairman and Agenda Chair, Elyria-Lorraine Broadcasting's Tim Kelly commented, "This year marks the first time that we've provide a "track" format at the Summer Learning Conference and we're excited that it will allow our attendees to get the most out of their three days in Minneapolis. By providing tracks covering the important aspects of our business our attendees can pick and choose from each aspect or concentrate on one for the entire weekend." AT THE CROSSROADS will feature five distinct learning tracks, with details on specific sessions inside these tracks to be released in the coming weeks: 1. Formatics -Encompassing the popular format symposiums revamped to offer a broad appeal to all programmers not just those in individual formats, 2. Life Skills -Including topics like time and stress management, personal branding and career building, 3. Management and Programming-Covering topics like PPM, Talent Development, and NTR, 4. Technology -Highlighting production, new media and HD, 5. Promotion (formerly, The Promotion Summit) -Addressing issues like reaching younger demographics, understanding agencies and working with charities. The agenda will continue to feature familiar elements like Conclave College, The Career Fair, and Welcome Room. Keynotes will be delivered by NAB CEO/President David Rehr and Jones Radio personality Ed Schultz. Earlybird registration is just $199 for a limited time. Complete agenda information, forms and hotel rates are also available at www.theconclave.com.

Digitally asleep until now, Target will take on Amazon, iTunes and Wal-mart while working directly with record labels in the downloading business. You'll see John Legend help in the kick off of the campaign for Target.
