Chef's Delight! The Conclave is proud to announce the addition of Isaac Hayes to the agenda for the 2008 Conclave Learning Conference: At the Crossroads! The Rock & Roll Hall of Famer, Oscar winner, multiple Grammy recipient, actor, author, and radio personality will be featured at the event's Saturday (June 28th) luncheon, providing both a performance and intimate interview for all Conference attendees! The appearance, presented by BMI, will also feature Isaac's songwriting partner David Porter. Together at the Stax label in the 60's the team penned most of Sam & Dave's hits, including such classics as "Soul Man" and "Hold On! I'm Coming"; they also wrote material for other acts on the roster, such as Carla Thomas and Johnnie Taylor. Of course, Isaac's solo career was highlighted by the hit single, "Theme from Shaft" from the movie and soundtrack of the same name. In fact, Shaft was the first album in history by a solo black artist to hit #1 on both the Pop and R&B chart and it stayed on the charts for 16 months! In addition to his musical career, including his Grammy winning songwriting and recording prowess and an Academy Award for Shaft, he also served as a member of the royal family of the African nation of Ghana while continuing simultaneous careers as an actor, composer, and humanitarian. In recent years he appeared in the remake of Shaft and worked with Alicia Keys as musician and songwriter. Conclave Board Chairman and Agenda Chair, Tim Kelly noted, "We are excited to offer the chance to hear from not just one but two incredibly talented and successful songwriters and musicians." All of this means that Learning Conference registrants have a chance to hear about the music industry directly from one of the greats. Plus, it will allow everyone to have lunch with Chef (Hayes is the voice of the character Chef on the animated TV series South Park). The complete agenda for the Conclave: At the Crossroads, slated from June 26th-28th, 2008 as well as details on earlybird registration of $199 can be found online at www.theconclave.com.

Last Friday, Clear Channel President John Hogan emailed his chain with the news the behemoth would be cutting back expenses in the wake of bleak budgetary news. Said Hogan in his missive, "We are generating less revenue for Q1 than we budgeted and less than what actually ran last year. At the same time, our budgeted expenses for Q1 are up 4%...While there are a number of factors contributing to our revenue shortfall, the fact is we are behind on our revenue plan, up over last year on expenses, and as a result we will be well below our budgeted Q1 broadcast cash flow. As responsible managers, we need to address the shortfall not only by continuing to find ways to increase our revenue but also by implementing cuts on the expense side until revenue production improves." Would that be the whole story? Not necessarily. One industry publication, R&R, speculated: "Clear Channel, once the monster of the radio world, is now preparing to lumber off into the lonely world of a privately held operation controlled by a conglomerate of private-equity gurus and must slim down dramatically for the big date." How severe would the cutbacks be? Hogan called for an immediate reduction in all research spending, in advertising and promotions, and in all discretionary monies such as travel, meals and entertainment, and he said, "Do not hire an additional salespeople" and "Do not hire any additional new employees." In fact, it was unclear to many CC staffers if they could even replace people who exited their posts to take new jobs, retire, etc. Ostensibly, the budgetary freeze only applies to first quarter spending, although some on the inside have been quietly told to expect the belt-tightening to last into the second quarter, as well. Commentary: Some of us openly wondered if Clear Channel going private - answering to people who don't know radio - would take the company in an unreasonably frugal direction. Now we apparently have not just one answer, but two. First, the private equity folks behind this move have shown they are only after affecting the bottom line, no matter the cost. Second, they've shown that they definitely are NOT radio people. Proof? Radio has traditionally encouraged clients who may be undergoing tough times, threatening to pull advertising off the air, to continue - if not step up - their individual marketing and promotion efforts. For somebody to suggest to a radio company, especially the number one radio company in the world, to cease advertising and promotion as one of its FIRST cutbacks during a tough quarter, must be completely unschooled in the history of the medium. We have to believe that. Otherwise, the only other explanation for the advertising cutback echoes hypocrisy. And that's not a threshold those of us who still believe in the industry are ready to cross. - TK

The FCC recent issued a fine for alleged visual indecency against 52 ABC-TV affiliates for a 2003 episode of “NYPD Blue” for briefly showing a woman’s nude backside and side. All stations are in the Central and Mountain Time zones. Eastern and Pacific Time zone affiliates were not affected, as the show aired past the 10pm “safe harbor”. Each station was fined $27,500, totally $1.43 million. ABC has stated they will appeal the fine because they feel the finding is not consistent with precedent set by the Commission. However, Commissioner Deborah Taylor Tate issues a statement that she feels the fines are in accordance with the Broadcast Decency Act of 2005, which was enacted to discourage broadcasters from programming “indecent” content between the hours of 10pm and 6am. It is unclear why the fine is being levied now on an incident that’s nearly six years old, and took place prior to Tate and Robert McDowell’s appointments to the Commission, and before Kevin Martin was named Chairman, but it may not be a coincidence that 2008 is an election year.

David K. Rehr, President and CEO of the NAB – and 2008 Conclave keynoter - recent sent a letter to Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid (D-NV) in support of S.2035, the “Free Flow of Information Act”, which would protect reporters from full disclosure of their sources. Rehr wrote in his letter that he feels S.2035 would allow for the creation of important ground rules regarding disclosure terms, and would allow the public to feel comfortable in bringing important concerns to light.

Clear Channel/Boston OM Cadillac Jack has picked up an additional job. He’s just been named PD at Clear Channel Urban WWPR/NY. Cadillac is already in place in New York, and will continue to oversee Clear Channel/Boston as OM. Helen Little, who was PD at POWER 105.1, will be leaving the station to take over middays at sister station WLTW starting next week. Commentary. Moves such as this continue to fortify an ever-growing philosophy among many of our nation’s leading radio companies: Being the PD of a major market radio station – especially in the #1 market in the US – is now considered a part time job. That fact isn’t washing well with these same companies who insist that now, and in the future, content is king. - TK

KWYO/Sheridan, WY switched from an Adult Contemporary format to Greatest Hits of all Time on Tuesday, 1/29. Russ Davidson, PD, commented that listener emails over the past few months indicated interest in an Oldie’s station. Comments have been positive, and the focus is on music from 1964-1984.

Mark Todd assumed the PD position at Journal Top 40 KQCH (Channel 94.1)/Omaha, NE. Prior to this position, Todd was OM for NRG Group/Omaha, NE. He is excited to again focus on one radio station and get back to Top 40 programming.

Garrison Keillor (host “A Prairie Home Companion”) voluntarily ended the restraining order he had received against Andrea Campbell of Hawkinsville, GA. She was accused of harassment, including emails, telephone calls, and sending strange gifts. The subsequent hearing on Monday in St. Paul has since been cancelled.

Dave St. John and Dave Ryerson were named Regional PDs for Northwestern Media. They will work with Assistant VP Reid Holsen and concentrate on programming, marketing and special projects for stations outside of the Minneapolis/St. Paul area. St. John will also stay at Christian KNWI-KNWM/Des Moines, IA doing programming and hosting mornings. Ryerson also becomes PD for Christian KFNW/KFNL/Fargo, ND. In addition, Northwestern named Lori Miller APD at KFNW-KFNL/Fargo, ND.

A direct connection between Music Master music scheduling software and Analyst music research software has been created to facilitate the exchange of data. Joe Knapp, president of A-Ware Software, stated that this would enable users to find greater value in their music research. Brad Riegel, president of Cornerstone Research, concurs.

Heartland Communication’s attempt to block the sale of Oldies WHRY-Am/Hurley, MI and Hot AC WUPM/Ironwood, MI to Gerald J. Hackman and John J. Nix by Charles H. Gervasio’s Big G Little O Inc. was denied by the FCC. The deal is a stock purchase agreement for a $1.25 million aggregate ($10.833 / share). Heartland feels the deal is in breach of a four-year noncompete agreement Hackman signed in 2004. The FCC stated they do not get involved in contractual disputes, and the noncompete is outside the Commission’s jurisdiction.

Jerry Springer and Dick Kay (former NBC & WMAQ-TV political editor) will host a “Super Tuesday Wrap-Up – Chicago Style” next Wednesday morning (2/6) on Newsweb Talk WCPT-AM/Chicago, IL, which will cover primary results from the previous night. This program will pre-empt regular programming on WCPT, and is scheduled from 6:45 to 11am CT.

Jamie Phillips is now PD/AM driver for KRTI/Newton, IA!
