Jones Radio Networks' – and this summer's 2008 Conclave Learning Conference Keynote – Ed Schultz is in hot water after he called Republican presidential candidate John McCain a "warmonger" while warming up a crowd for Barack Obama at the North Dakota Democratic Party's convention in Grand Forks. Obama campaign spokeswoman Jen Psaki quickly rebuffed the statement saying, "John McCain is not a warmonger and should not be described as such. He's a supporter of a war that Senator Obama believes should have never been authorized and never been waged." McCain seemed to be satisfied with the apology. Schultz, however, isn't shying away from his comments, telling CNN's John Roberts, "I'm sorry, John, the label sticks. John McCain is a warmonger." Remember, McCain immediately denounce WLW-AM/Cincinnati host Bill Cunningham's comments when he calling Obama by his middle name Hussein at an Ohio event. Schultz takes the Conclave stage on Friday, June 27th at the Marriott City Center in Minneapolis. Details can be found at www.theconclave.com.

Eight radio companies have formed a new joint venture, The Broadcaster Traffic Consortium, LLC, to build a nationwide network to distribute traffic data via radio technology. BTC is working with NAVTEQ, a digital maps and vehicle navigation company, and will use HD Radio technology to broadcast real-time NAVTEQ traffic and other location based info to portable navigation devices and automobile in-dash systems. Founding members of BTC are Beasley Broadcast Group; Bonneville International Corporation; Cox Radio, INC.; Emmis Communications; Entercom Communications Corp.; Greater Media; NPR and Radio One.

Randi Rhodes exits Air America Radio, but will be back Monday, syndicated 2-5p CT weekdays by Nova M Radio Network, where her former producer John Manzo serves as CEO. Manzo said, "I just can't stop smiling - Randi is simply the biggest and the best. Randi Rhodes and Mike Malloy under one roof – talk about Talent!" Rhodes added, "With Manzo at helm of Nova M, I am truly going to work for the best of the best. He is radio elite...and I am too (laughs). I'm home, I'm home, I'm home!" News Breaks From San Francisco Affiliate Late Wednesday, Clear Channel Talk KKGN-AM /San Francisco PD John Scott posted a note on the station's website that read, "We have been very frustrated the past few days in our efforts to rectify the Randi Rhodes situation (her suspension by her network, Air America Radio). It is our understanding that today (April 9th) she is no longer an employee of Air America. So we are bringing her back." "Monday, April 14th at 4pm ... it will be our pleasure to announce the return of Randi Rhodes to the Green 960 family." It was in an appearance for KKGN on March 22nd that Rhodes made comments about Hillary Clinton and Geraldine Ferraro that drew her suspension from AAR.

Lester St. James is returning to Omaha! After spending the past couple of years guiding Three Eagles/Lincoln, Lester returns to Omaha to work for Clear Channel as PD for oldies KGOR, among other duties! Lester is also a longtime Conclave Board member. Congrats!

Texas Court Says No. The lenders being sued in Texas by Clear Channel and its buyout backer's filed Wednesday to have the suit dismissed, but the county court handling the matter denied the dismissal. Citigroup, Wachovia, Royal Bank Of Scotland, Deutsche Bank, Morgan Stanley, and Credit Suisse told the court the temporary restraining order issued against them in Texas unfairly compels them to perform according to Clear Channel's will rather than preserving the status quo, which they argue was in the midst of negotiations and not a completed deal. A spokesman for the banks said, "We continue to believe the litigation brought by Clear Channel and the sponsors is without merit, and we look forward to arguing our case in court."

Former Talk KLIK/Jefferson City midday host James Keown's murder trial has been declared a mistrial. A key defense witness was taken ill in Indianapolis, preventing him to testify this week. Judge Geraldine Hines declared the mistrial and set a new trial for June 9th. Keown has been charged with murdering his wife, Julie, in the fall of 2004 by spiking her Gatorade with anti-freeze.

Need cash to go back to school? To learn a new trick of the trade? To simply expand your knowledge of the things that surround you? The Conclave is encouraging those in the radio industry to apply for the organization's new Rockwell Scholarship, with the May 1st deadline for application fast approaching. Anyone in the industry - from first-year rookies to 30-year-veterans - are eligible to receive $1000 to enhance their skills through education. Candidates may come from the ranks of programming, sales, promotion/marketing, engineering, production, or any other department inside a radio organization. You must either be enrolled, or plan to be enrolled, in an accredited post-secondary educational course or courses. According to Conclave Scholarship Committee chairperson, Siobhan Kierans, "We want to make sure that the industry knows this money is available to pros who wish to continue to learn, not just to those who are considered "students". She goes on to say, "The characteristics of a Rockwell Scholarship recipient include having a strong belief in oneself while demonstrating selflessness, possessing a passion and optimism for the industry, and has gained the respect of their co-workers." This year, the Conclave Rockwell Scholarship has been donated by the 2007 Conclave Rockwell Award recipient, Erica Farber - publisher of the industry's newspaper, Radio & Records!

Wisconsin Attorney General J.B. Van Hollen, who previously unsuccessfully lobbied Assistant Attorney General for Antitrust Thomas O. Barnett to block the XM-Sirius merger, has now sent a letter to FCC Chairman Kevin Martin urging his Commission to turn the merger down as "bad for consumers and bad for competition" citing as reasons to reject, increased consumer costs and monopoly power in the satellite radio category. Another Midwestern governmental figure, Sen. Sam Brownback (R-KS) told the Commissioner in a letter that the Justice Department's approval of the deal was wrong and that the companies (who he added were "peddling obscene and indecent material") are prohibited from merging by law. Commentary: Regulatory issues usually seem to line up along party lines, with Dems arguing for 'more regulation' while Republicans argue for less government intervention in commercial matters. Intriguingly, the XM-Sirius merger appears to have Republicans joining organizations like the NAB in asking for regulatory intervention in proposed satellite radio merger. We wonder what position Senator Brownback would take inside the question of allowing U.S. radio companies more opportunities to, say, own more newspaper or television properties? I'm just askin' - TK

As of 5p Wednesday (4/9), Peak Broadcasting Top 40 KSAS/Boise PD/Afternoons Steve Kicklighter (aka Keke Luv) finished his 175-hour broadcasting marathon to raise awareness for child abuse. April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month. Luv left the station in an ambulance as a precaution but wasn't hospitalized. Although he was allowed to take 15-minute naps every eight hours, Luv was quoted in the paper as saying, "What sounds good is falling asleep and not getting up again." He's expected to be back on the air on Monday, April 21st. Luv had media coverage from local stations, FOX News and was recognized on the floor of the Unites States House of Representatives by Idaho State Rep. Mike Simpson.

The most recent study by Arbitron and Edison Media Research shows continued growth in usage and ownership of digital audio platforms, like online radio, IPOD/MP3 players and podcasting. 13% of people 12+ have listened to online radio in the past week up from 11%. Online radio reached 1 in 7 25-54 year olds a week. More than 1 in 5 consumers say radio has a big impact on their lives; ranking second only to mobile phones (33%) as the audio platform/device that has the biggest impact on people's lives. The Awareness of HD radio was down 26% to 24% over the past year despite much advertising. 40% of weekly online radio listeners have a profile on a social networking Web site. Those who regularly listen to online radio are more likely to participate in social networks; 41% of weekly online radio listeners report having an online social networking profile (compared to 24% of the total 12+ population); more than one-third (37%) visit social networking sites nearly once per day or more. The Internet is gaining on radio as the medium to learn about new music. In 2008, radio is mentioned as the medium "you turn to first to learn about new music" by about half of consumers (49%), with Internet at 25%. In 2002, radio was mentioned by nearly two-thirds of consumers (63%) for this perception, while only 9% mentioned Internet.

HipCricket has launched a Hispanic mobile marketing network composed of a family of Hispanic media properties that can be leveraged by brand marketers to deliver highly targeted and interactive mobile marketing campaigns directly to the handsets of opted-in, engaged mobile users who are part of the $860 billion Hispanic consumer market. HipCricket announced major Hispanic media companies, representing 50 radio and television stations, one million listeners and viewers, Bustos Media, Lotus Communications and Davidson Media Group are among the first to join. Seek out HipCricket CEO Ivan Braiker about the breakthrough during the 2008 Conclave Learning Conference.

There are plenty of headlines about how radio companies make and manage money, but what about the radio professionals who work for them? The Conclave today announced details of a session to address just that. Financial Strategies for Radio Professionals is set for this summer's Learning Conference, CONCLAVE 08': AT THE CROSSROADS, June 26th-29th. Darla Kashian, Financial Consultant with RBC Wealth Management, will present the session. She noted, "It's not only about how good you are at earning money, it's also about understanding and protecting your money. And for radio professionals, the constantly changing marketplace presents unique challenges." Scheduled for Saturday, June 28th at 2:30pm, attendees will learn how to better leverage the opportunities in professional radio for their financial future while at the same time managing the constantly changing marketplace. According to Conclave Agenda Chairperson, Tim Kelly, "During the course of the Learning Conference we hope to educate and help our attendees with many parts of their lives. Working toward a financially secure future is important to all of us, especially in these uncertain economic times. Ms. Kashian's session promises to provide not just answers, but a wealth management action plan for those who are at any income level inside our industry." The session is part of the new Life Skills track at this year's Learning Conference. Darla brings more than 15 years professional business development and community and charitable involvement to her wealth management practice. Her practice focuses on wealth accumulation, spending, multigenerational wealth transfer, and philanthropic giving. A-Ware Software has unveiled the MusicMaster Nexus Server! The MusicMaster Nexus Server gives third-party software products instant, real-time access to MusicMaster's database and scheduling intelligence. Primarily designed as an automation interface, the Nexus Server can easily connect with other software systems, such as traffic and billing, research analysis, and web services. With MusicMaster's new Nexus Server, real-time access to your music scheduling data and scheduling rules becomes available directly through your automation system. Automation systems that are integrated with MusicMaster through the Nexus Server bring the power of MusicMaster from the PD or MD's desk into the studio with a dynamic connection. MusicMaster's Nexus Server is an HTTP service application that can process requests from third-party systems across a local area network or the Internet, giving them access to MusicMaster's music scheduling data and business intelligence. One Nexus Server can process requests for multiple MusicMaster databases. "Radio and our other music providers, have been asking for this functionality for some time. What is unique about the MusicMaster Nexus Server is that it has been designed to integrate with any systems wishing to do so," said Joe Knapp President A-Ware Software, Inc.
