Next Conclave Webinar: A Small, Good Thing! In radio's current atmosphere, it's difficult to stay positive. There are good ideas available, but many broadcasters at the local level feel that they lack the budget, the power or the time to implement them. The rapid adoption of social media has given many in the industry a platform to express their frustration, whether through blog posts, Facebook notes, message boards, or by commenting on the posts of others. Ultimately, however, only positive energy is really productive, and life rewards a bias for action. Join Tom Webster, VP of Strategy and Marketing for Edison Research, for the next Conclave Webinar: "A Small, Good Thing*" on Wednesday, October 14th at 3P EDT/2P CDT. Tom presents six small, good things that you can do every day - with no approval, no budget and in less than an hour - that will positively affect your station, your career, and your mindset. This webinar will be a practical, hands-on look at some of the strategies and tactics Tom implements at Edison to continue to grow and thrive both personally and professionally during difficult times and represents something a little "different" than you've come to expect from Tom. This webinar, presented in part by Envision Radio Networks, is free but preregistration is necessary. To join the webinar on 10/14, click on <https://www1.gotomeeting.com/register/369441809>. Comment: Next Wednesday's webinar will be a little different than those we've presented in the recent past, tackling a very personal subject - gaining a positive attitude - versus our usual regimen of providing nuts & bolts, on-the-job techniques and tips. Tom is one of the industry's premier creative thinkers, and we're thrilled to provide a webinar that can actually make an attendee happier if not healthier. Don't miss it! - TK

John Stokes is trying to roll an 11, but keeps getting 7. The former Talk KGEZ-AM/Kalispell, MT owner asked to put his companies into Chapter 11 bankruptcy as opposed to the involuntary Chapter 7, but a court rejected Stokes' request.

Stokes, who shut the station down last month, asked the U.S. Bankruptcy Court in Missoula for additional time to prepare arguments for his petition for reconsideration to convert his bankruptcy to Chapter 7 but his bid was rejected. The bankruptcy was the result of losing a defamation judgment to neighbors he had battled openly for years over property rights. According to published reports in a Missoula newspaper, trustee Richard Samson has applied to the FCC for approval to transfer Stokes' Skyline Broadcasters, Inc.'s license for KGEZ to the trust because Stokes allegedly allowed Skyline's corporate status to expire while failing to notify the Commission of the fact. As a result, the court converted his bankruptcy to Chapter 7 after a judge ruled that Stokes had not disclosed all of his assets to the court, had not paid taxes for years, and had not fulfilled financial reporting requirements or paid filing fees.

Former WGNU-AM/St. Louis talker Leonardo Drisdell's murder trial is picking a jury this week. Drisdell is accused of killing Cassandra Kovack in June 2005. Police say Drisdell confessed to his wife that he had been doing drugs with the victim when a voice ordered him to kill Kovack.

CBS adds its CHR "Amp" format to their Detroit cluster last Monday to compete with top-rated Clear Channel WKQI/Detroit. "Amp" can now be heard on WVMV and online at www.987ampradio.com. This is the 2nd "Amp" launch for CBS this year and the 12th CHR in the company. KAMP-FM/Los Angeles was the 1st flip and is the fastest growing station in that market and top choice among Adults 18-34. In Detroit, the Smooth Jazz station "Amp" replaced, can now be heard on the station's HD 2.

Former American Media Investments COO Paul Lyle pleaded guilty last week to a felony theft charge for stealing roughly $86k from the company to fuel his lottery ticket buying addiction. While these charges were pending against Lyle, he won a "second chance" drawing of the Kansas Lottery, which gave him a new boat and other prizes valued at $96k. Lyle has agreed to forfeit the prize to his former employer. After taxes, the prosecutor said the prize will still come up $8k short of what he owes.

Rush Limbaugh is trying to buy the NFL's St. Louis Rams. Limbaugh has partnered with St. Louis Blues and Real Salt Lake owner and radio station operator Dave Checketts. The team is being sold by Goldman Sachs for the heirs of late Rams owner Georgia Frontiere, who own 60% of the franchise.

PRI is moving to a new building in Minneapolis. The creator and distributor of award-winning content ranging from PRI's "The World" to BBC World Service to "This American Life" announced plans to relocate to the former Textile Building, renamed Public Radio International and located in the creative hub of downtown Minneapolis' historic Warehouse District. Relocation is set for early 2010. "This move will allow us to build on our 26 years of innovation, and do so in an area of the city that is dynamic and growing. We'll be able to bring global perspectives to Minnesotans in very immediate and practical ways because of our new facility," said PRI President and CEO Alisa Miller.

Big League Broadcasting entered into an LMA with the management of its Sports KFNS-AM/St. Louis under which the managers, Dave Greene and James Oelklaus, will lease the station for their new Grand Slam Sports. Greene and Oelklaus publish the St. Louis Sports Magazine and have been managing the station since last November under a partnership between their company and Big League.

The Mentoring and Inspiring Women in Radio Group (MIW) announces details of their 2010 Mildred Carter Mentoring program. Launched in 2002, this program matches up-and-coming women in the radio industry with professionals who are leaders in all aspects of radio. Candidates from sales, programming, marketing and other related fields are encouraged to apply. Interested mentors must have been in the radio industry for five years or more, agree to actively participate in mentoring and agree to total confidentiality during the mentoring program. All candidates are required to send a letter answering the question, "Why would I be a good mentee?" Apply to Heidi Raphael at hraphael@greatermedia.com no later than Friday, October 30, 2009.

Conclave partner BMI announces that their website (www.bmi.com) will now provide expanded access to business services for its music publishers, songwriters, composers and licensees. New features include a user management center, a universal login, a power search function that provides multiple search options and electronic statements. BMI Pres./CEO Del Bryant says, "This system upgrade enables music creators and their business teams to manage their careers in a fluid, detailed, time-efficient manner. The digital age requires this kind of advanced functionality, and we are proud to offer it."

Miss this summer's Learning Conference? Fear not! For the first time ever, the Conclave is now making key sessions from the just-completed 2009 Learning Conference available in MP3 form along with the more traditional CD format. These recordings are available for $9.99 each as an MP3, or $19.99 each in CD form. To order, use the order form found in today's TATTLER or visit www.theconclave.com and download an order form (<http://www.theconclave.com/upload/2009mp3cdorderform.pdf>).

The Lutheran Church (Missouri Synod) is selling Classical KFUFM/St. Louis to Gateway Creative Broadcasting (Joy FM) for $18 million.

Lincoln Financial Country KYGO/Denver morning personalities Kelly and Mudflap hosted an underwater wedding between two listeners at the Downtown Aquarium last Friday. The listeners suited up in scuba gear to exchange vows while surrounded by sea creatures.

Congrats to Wask Radio Country WKOA/Lafayette, IN for raising $80,266 for Riley Children's Hospital during its Riley Radiothon!
