Former Conclave keynoter Gloria Steinem along with Jane Fonda and Robin Morgan wrote a column at CNN.com Saturday asking the FCC to revoke licenses of stations that air the Rush Limbaugh show because, they say, it isn't operating "in the public interest." The column's authors insist "this isn't political". The co-founders of the Women's Media Center piled on, adding that his comments about student/activist Sandra Fluke weren't the only reason, but a series of comments about women and African-Americans that they say demonstrates "degrading language Limbaugh deploys on women, people of color, lesbians and gays, immigrants, the disabled, the elderly, Muslims, Jews, veterans, environmentalist and so forth," calling it "dehumanizing speech." The column urges "the public to take back our broadcast resources. Limbaugh has had decades to fix his show. Now, it's up to us." Cumulus' Lew Dickey is happy about Limbaugh's fall from grace, saying it caused some "logistical difficulties" for his company, but would be "very helpful to us with our new show launch" of the Mike Huckabee show, which will air in the same time slot as Rush and will have 110 stations for its April 2nd launch. In advertising news, Premiere posted a note to the Traffic Directors Guild of America's website for a short time on Friday, listing all 96 barter spot advertisers that have requested that their spots be scheduled "in dayparts or programs free of content that you know are deemed to offensive or controversial (Mark Levin, Rush Limbaugh, Tom Leykis, Michael Savage, Glenn Beck and Sean Hannity were the names/shows mentioned as examples). No buy lists have been part of the agency game for years, with hosts like Rush and Howard Stern as the subjects. Premiere has also alerted affiliates that barter spots from the network for all news-talk programs are suspended for the next two weeks, with stations instructed to fill barter spots with local spots for Lifelock and Lear Financial. Premiere released a statement to All Access that read, "This memo was sent to traffic managers of news/talk affiliates as part of Premiere's overall strategy to update our processes and services to better meet our clients' needs."

The Bloomberg news service polled likely voters this week, asking if they think Rush Limbaugh should be pulled from the air. By a 53%-42% margin, their respondents said yes (5% didn't know). The poll showed women were more likely to suggest Rush be removed than men. Those scores were 56% and 49%, respectively. As the nation steps back a few decades, conversations about birth control have spring from the privacy of one's home to the national spotlight framed as a fight for women's rights vs. religious freedom. According to the poll, the women's health issue trumps religious freedom fanatics by a 62%-33% margin. 77% think the issue of contraception shouldn't even be part of the current political discussion. COMMENTARY. Our prediction for the next big challenge to be taken up by enlightened talk radio: the earth is indeed flat and the round-earth conspirators are about to have their ruse totally exposed by naming names of those who have fallen off into the ethers! Now pardon us. We've been battling the flu, and we're headed out the door for a good blood-letting. - TK

But hurry, tuition rises to $399 on April 1st! Saga CEO Ed Christian, also the Chairman of the Radio Music License Committee, is please the organization recently came to terms with ASCAP. However a deal with BMI apparently isn't so close. Christian told the Wall Street Journal that he hopes the ASCAP deal will help the terms with BMI – but he won't make promises. "I believe BMI is looking hard at what ASCAP did," said Christian, but he added that it is always difficult for a performing arts organization to change the metric. Christian and the RMLC convinced ASCAP to return to the historic system of royalties being a percentage of radio station revenues, rather than a fixed fee.

to save $100 on the 2012 Conclave Learning Conference.

Tuition is STILL $299 through March 31, 2012.

Another Conclave keynoter is in the news. This time, Mancow Muller is reportedly close to hosting two one-hour specials on FOX News. Time Out/Chicago's Robert Feder is reporting that "Mancow TV" will be trying out for the gig on March 18 and 25 with veteran producer Woody Fraser. "To come out of the confines of my cramped radio studio and be on TV around the world is a terrifying prospect, but it's also very exciting and thrilling," Muller said. "Other radio hosts have made great transitions to TV on FOX. Wouldn't that be wonderful if that happened to me too?"

SCHOLARSHIP DEADLINE EXTENDED! The Conclave will be extending the application deadline for its three 2012 radio industry scholarships. The new deadline is Friday, March 30th (it had been March 2nd). Said Conclave Chair, Mark Bolke, "The Conclave recognizes that many students are scrambling to find appropriate post-secondary educational tracks and the funds to pursue them. Also, recent lay-offs in other industries have forced many professionals to seek conduits to other vocational pursuits. Extending our deadline is the right thing to do, allowing more of those in need a chance to win an exciting future." The 2012 Radio and Music Industry Scholarship Program, offers 5 scholarships worth nearly $90,000 – three of them specifically aimed at helping an applicant join the broadcasting industry! Effective immediately, qualified persons may apply for scholarships to Broadcast Center in St. Louis (MO), Brown College (MN), and Specs Howard School of Media Arts in Southfield (MI) until March 30th. A deadline of March 2nd remains in place for scholarships offered by McNally-Smith College of Music in St. Paul (MN) or the newly offered scholarship for the Media Institute of Madison, (WI) & Minneapolis, (MN). In addition to the scholarships listed above, The Conclave also will also be awarding three baccalaureate scholarships - two Doug Lee Memorial/IBS/dmr Scholarships that will be won by members of college radio (deadline for application: March 30), and the Marc Birger Memorial Scholarship that will be awarded to a Communications major at Kean University of New Jersey. These scholarships will be awarded at the 2012 Summer Learning Conference, July 18-20, 2012 in Minneapolis, (MN). For all Conclave scholarship information and downloadable (or online) application forms, visit <http://www.radioscholarships.com> or <http://www.theconclave.com>.

Emmis' WIBC-FM/Indianapolis joined with Scripps' WRTV-TV to raise money and gather relief efforts for the victims of the tornados that recently destroyed homes and lives in Southern Indiana. WIBC/RTV 6 collected $46k in cash during the 12 hour, drive-thru and drop off event. In addition to the drive-thru, the community was also asked to drop of donations in Red Kettles at local Jiffy Lube's; on-line donations to both station's websites; via text to give; or the Salvation Army national phone line. Totals are still being counted.

Greater Media Active Rock WRIF/Detroit morning guys Drew and Mike talked to former wife of Eddie Van Halen, Valerie Bertinelli, who said there wouldn't be a Van Halen tour or new album if it wasn't for their son, Wolfgang. When asked about the fight over Wolfgang joining Van Halen on tour instead of the former Van Halen bassist, Bertinelli said, "You know, I loved Mike, too. I though he was a really nice guy. Still do. But, the only way this tour is happening is because Eddie gets to play with his son Wolfie. Otherwise, this tour wouldn't be going on. It really wouldn't."

Following the news of the NFL's Indianapolis Colts releasing Peyton Manning, Radio One Top 40 WNOU/Indianapolis PD Leo Baldwin has renamed the station "Peyton 100.9," telling All Access that, "It's a huge story and we ran the press conference live when he separated from the team. We've officially reached out to Peyton with a job offer – and to show how serious we are, we've renamed the station in his honor. He has until Monday at 8a to accept or decline. We've had some Colts players call in to tell us he's aware of the offer – so we are anticipating hearing from Peyton himself, soon."

Former KMOX-AM/St. Louis personality, Frank Absher, has released a book about the history of the station. Arcadia Publishing's "KMOX: Voice of St. Louis" covers KMOX from its beginning, including the era of the 1930s, when the station had "the largest studio complex in broadcasting." Several CBS network shows began at KMOX, including one that was a natural home of Anheuser Busch – on December 6, 1933, it aired a special show observing the end of Prohibition.

At Midnight next Monday 3/19, the first FM Talk Station in Fargo goes on the air. Known as 101.9 FM Talk, The Talk of Fargo-Moorhead is owned by Jim Ingstad. The station launches in morning drive with talk veteran, Tom Becka. Becka was most recently afternoon drive talk host for KFAB in Omaha from 2004 until he was a casualty of Clear Channel cost-reductions in October of last year. Prior to that, Becka spent five years at KMBZ Kansas City, after his first stint at KFAB from 1994 to 1999. Becka will also serve as Program Director for 101.9 FM Talk. Besides Becka, 101.9 FM Talk will feature some of the most popular syndicated hosts in talk radio today. Brian Kilmeade, also a host of Fox and Friends, the most watched morning show on cable television, will air from 9-11AM, followed by Rush Limbaugh and Sean Hannity. The station will also debut with former Arizona Congressman J.D. Hayworth doing a live program exclusively for 101.9 Talk FM at 5:00PM, (in addition to his 9-12N program on KSFO, San Francisco). Then, it's back to syndication with Jason Lewis, originating from Minneapolis and outspoken Michael Savage round out the evening weekday line-up. According to station consultant Jon Quick of The Q Consulting Guys (veteran of WCCO/CBS, WIBC/Emmis), "In these days of cutbacks, it is so gratifying that there are operators like the Ingstad group who still believe that hiring great people and promoting them properly results in both ratings and revenue...The acquisition of pros like Tom Becka and JD Hayworth to a market like Fargo, only underscores the growing belief that it's no longer the market size that attracts superior talent; instead it's the realization that independent, non Wall-Street regulated corporations are a savior to radio as we once knew it. Great personalities doing great radio while touching communities is still a viable business model." Quick, it should be noted, cut his teeth as an air talent and PD in Fargo before embarking on his other radio journeys. 101.9 Talk FM replaces Classic Rock 102, which will cease to exist. Ingstad will retain all employees of the station.

RAMPing Up For An Apology. As TATTTLER readers may know, this newsletter is an aggregator of industry news, featuring stories of Conclave content, stories sent to us by radio about their stations and markets, as well as stories of interest that we find in the publications of Conclave friends like All Access, Inside Radio, Radio Business Report, Radio-Info, Radio Ink, and others. Usually, these stories are rewritten from their original source, occasionally adding factoids found elsewhere (as well as original commentary). When stories appear on our pages that are verbatim replications its not only our duty, but our pleasure, to let you know it. Last week, the TATTTLER featured a story on the death of Steve Rivers that should have been attributed to the folks at RAMP (Radio & Music Industry Professionals), edited by Kevin Carter. Alas, it was not. The TATTTLER regrets the omission. Know that we've been sent to bed without supper, and we'll be receiving no allowance for 2 weeks. (Sincerest apologies, Kevin, Keith and gang!)

The opinions expressed in The TATTTLER are not necessarily the opinions of the Conclave or its Board of Directors. Differing viewpoints are welcome to be submitted for publishing. Send them to The TATTTLER, 4517 Minnetonka Blvd, #104, Minneapolis, MN or email <mailto:tomk@theconclave.com>.
